THE ERA OF ASPHALTE

As we are soon to have some of our streets adorned with the new Asphalt pavement, the following from Herquiza's Journal may prove interesting...

All metropolitan improvements, present and prospective, excite the present unquestionably the greatest amount of public interest...

Some of the Entre Rios papers state that the withdrawal of the Line regiment intended for Colonel Gainza's promenade militia...

The handsome barque Juliana, is now unloading materials at Rosario for the Rio Carraiz Railway.

Mr. Adolfo Carraiz has gone up to Rosario to arrange about the projected messenger line to Jujuy.

The first bull fight in the new ring at Rosario came off on Friday last. To the disgrace of the town, it is recorded that 4,000 people attended the spectacle...

From Mendoza we hear of an alarming increase in the number of assassinations, similar to what we are now witnessing in this city and province.

An unfortunate child last week dashed its brains out against a tree, then throwing the corpse into the river. The unnatural mother has been arrested.

independent as much as possible as practicable the one party from the other, unless that in one party could be combined both obligations.

The Jurisprudence examinations at the University, stopped by the suicide of young Sanchez, were resumed yesterday.

The Tichborne case will assume additional interest in the eyes of Buenos Ayreans from the prevailing rumor that a commission is to come out to the Boyne to examine Governor Castro...

The mysterious disappearance of an old, wealthy, and respected Irish sheepfarmer, among his countrymen, would seem that Mr. Edward Walsh, whose naturally open and genial disposition had acquired for him the respect and esteem of all his neighbors...

Seeing that the positive advantages are so tangible, it is gratifying to find that asphalt has justified itself against several serious apprehensions that had been entertained.

There are, of course, certain streets of somewhat steep gradients in which asphalt would present impediments to draught, but these we can afford to leave as memorials of times gone by.

THE WELSH COLONY. Harvest is now going on here. The crops are very light owing to the drought, and some dams in the canal having been carried away...

Mr. Mrs. and Master Amen Chan, Chinese agents, are soon expected to say chin-chin! (how do you do), to the River Plate public.

The following is the very latest proposal for the final and satisfactory settlement of the Schleswig-Holstein-like question that has arisen among the British Hospital. It evidently comes from "I and my wife," the latter being the best man of the two, and we suspect she is our correspondent.
