MIXTURA PARA TERCIANAS DE JAYNE, A CERTAIN AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY For Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, &c.

This class of diseases, so common in all parts of the world, and especially prevalent in malability in districts and vicinage of water courses are almost invariably accompanied by more or less derangement of the liper, and frequently by a defective action of the digestive organs.

The mere breaking of the Chill is but a step towards completing a radical cure. The various organs of the body, especially the stemach and liver, must be brought to a healthy and vigorous condition before a permanent cure can be established, and this fact has been specially kept in view by Dr. Jayne in his treatment of these complaints. The use of Jayne's Ague Mixture, in conjunction with the Sanative Pills, as prescribed in the directions which accompany each bottle, will not only

And the best evidence of this is the iuvariable success which has always followed the administration of these remedies, as attested by the certiflectes published aurually in Dr. Jayne's Almanne, and the wide-spread popularity of the Agne Mixture in those districts of the United Statts, where the diseases, for which it is adapted, and the wide spread program. most prevail.

All Dr. D. Jayne's Family Medicines are prepared only at 242 Chestinit-street, Philadelphia and are sold by Druggists everywhere.

BANQUET TO CAPT. MORSE.

The banquet, for the purpose of presenting the gold medals given by a portion of the survivors of the ill-fated teamer America, burned on the river between this city and Montevideo, on the morning of the 24th of December, took place at the Hotel de la Paix, on Friday evening.

About thirty persons were seated ut the table, which was loaded with the linghurst presided on the occasion, representing his son, Don Lisandro, one of the passengers by the America, now absent in Europe. Mr. Billinghurst on presenting the medal to Captain Morse, accompanied it by a few touching and appropriate remarks, alluding to the object of the presentation of the medal as a token of the gratitude displayed by the survivors towards Capt.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo are now so generally left and appreciated in the the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montering of the River Plate, Montering of the classes already mentioned and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Morchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The Bank of Mana & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their

The sums deposited in that very important in-gitution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been ena very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been onoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves, with a reserve fund in case of need, siesness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other flivelities.

The Bank of Mauâ & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
