to the Plate, and the news was caught up from Dolores to Barracas quick as chasque and wire could bear it.

If it is now more than four years since Mr. Drabble left the Plate for Europe, whilst a resident here he stood first in the ranks of our representative foreign merchants.

part of the foreign public, we also offer a kindly greeting. We regret that in the morning of their River Plate experience they should be troubled with quarantine.

THE EMPEROR OF BRAZIL. The splendid reception given to Dom Pedro II. in Rio shows how sympathetic is the union between our constitutional sovereign and a free people.

The newspapers in Europe, speaking of the Emperor's movements and habits remarked: - "No monarch who had merely ornamental functions to perform in his country would be likely during a visit to a foreign capital to get out of bed at five in the morning to inspect a new piece of machinery, a public work, a celebrated school or hospital, a botanical garden, a museum, or a library."

We look to many excellent results from Mr. Drabble's visit - first, relief for our Lomas friends, and a thorough half hour train, morning and evening, for city men.

We look to Mr. Drabble, however, coming fresh from London as having thoroughly digested them, and hope that the lore derived from such colossal sanitary literature being roughly imparted to our public men, will result in a system of sewerage for this city that will rid us of all future epidemics.

As the introducer of Macadam, he paved the way to those improvements which make Flores to-day the fashionable suburb; he it was who gave Flores to Buenos Ayres.

LONDON LETTER. COLLAPSE OF THE TICHBORNE CASE - THE CLAIMANT IN NEWGATE. London, 8th March, 1872.

RETURN OF THE EMPEROR OF BRAZIL TO R. JANEIRO. (By a Passenger per Boyne.) On Sunday 31st March Rio harbour presented a beautiful and picturesque sight.

any difficulty arise with any other nation. Art. 19. This treaty nowise prejudices the special stipulations that Brazil has made, or may hereafter make, with the Argentine and Oriental Republics, respecting always the present obligations.

Art. 20. Brazil may agree with Paraguay for the maintenance, after this treaty being signed, of such portion of the imperial army as requisite to keep order and see to the faithful fulfilment of these engagements. A special convention shall fix the number of such troops, the term of occupation, the mode of paying for such expenses.

Art. 21. Prisoners of war not yet sent home shall now be returned, each country paying for the transport of its own people.

Art. 22. The Paraguayan Government shall arrest and remit any Brazilian deserters, and the Brazilian Government will treat them leniently.

Art. 23. The exchange and ratification of this treaty shall be made at Rio Janeiro as soon as possible. And in testimony of the above we have hereunto set our hands and seals.

Asunción, January 9th 1872. Carlos Lopez. Carlos Lozaga. And whereas we have found the above treaty right and proper in every particular we hereby ratify it with our imperial word, and promise to observe and cause it to be observed most faithfully, for which end the seal and arms of Brazil will be affixed by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Art. 1. The limits between the two countries shall be adjusted in a special treaty simultaneous with the present.

Art. 2. Both nations oblige themselves to maintain the free navigation, to all flags, of the Paraguay, Paraná and Uruguay.

Art. 3. The above rivers shall be free from their mouths to such ports as may be resolved on.

Art. 4. This does not include the affluents of said rivers nor connecting-canal between ports of the same nation, which either Brazil or Paraguay may reserve, but the subjects of either State may ship their produce in whatever vessels to the coasting traffic.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUA AND CO. 101-Calle Cangallo-103 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. c.) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds Twenty-five thousand Dollars currency, or one thousand Dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
