DON'T GIVE UP THE CUTTER. It is inexplicable how with all the press element we have in Buenos Ayres we bow to nuisances that even Tamahimi would be ashamed of. The business relations between Montevideo and Buenos Ayres are so close and large, that not even the closing of this port can sunder them.

NEW AND GENERAL AUCTION MART. MITRE AND CO. CALLE CANGALLO, 59 & 65. The Week's Sales. In calling the attention of the Public to the following extra important Sales for this week we desire to inform them that to visit and acquire a collection of useful and ornamental articles are comprised therein that is found impossible to give a detailed list of each and every article. Justice requires that where all cannot be mentioned, notice should be named. All we can say in conclusion is "Come and Buy."

WANTED, AN ENGLISH RESIDENT TEACHER. Apply at No. 24 Calle No. 17. GENERAL ENHAUSION.—When the blood does not reproduce the solids of the body as fast as they are exhausted by the wear and tear of life, emaciation and debility ensue. Physical weakness and decrepitude are the sure evidence of a want of reproductive vigor in the vital current.

REDUCTION IN RATES OF PASSAGE. First Class to Liverpool, London, Glasgow, or Antwerp £35 ster. Antwerp, 3d Liverpool, 17 10 Liverpool, 15 0. The usual allowance made to families.

WHERE she is now not even Professor Gould with his monster telescope can make out; when she will return with the mails; even the clairvoyants give up. She is the idol of every Post-office clerk in the country. Sir Edward Cunnard himself might feel proud of such a vessel. Dear charming craft, better to be her captain than editor of the first paper in the Plate. May she never spring a leak until, heavily laden with mail bags and newspapers, she sinks, to rise no more, in the vast gurgling whirlpool of River Plate gossiping.

allowance for the supineness of South American Governments, and that is why the frontier in question has not been guarded with extra care in view of Callicura's threat of coming back soon for the rest of the cattle in 25 de Mayo. Why then are they so merciless and treacherous in all their forays on our frontier? For two causes first because the Pampa tribes are now partly composed of vagrant gauchos, escaped convicts, and the like, who are the worst enemies of the frontier settlers; secondly because Callicura affects to consider that his people have been badly treated and that the Christians say no faith need be kept with Indians.

long category of steamers we have not a single steambot that in an emergency like the present we can run from the pontoon to the Cerro to carry the mails between two of the first markets of South America! Hear ye, hear ye all; Mr. Posadas, President Sarmiento, Governor Castro, Port Captain Bustillos, naval storeman, Evans, of Montevideo, Guillermo Matti, of Buenos Ayres; there is no steambot in the Plate for the Montevideo mail service.

LET us shut up the old Post-office in Calle Bolívar in 'todo,' or at least only open it once a week, for the very sight of the place fetches a sigh from every passer-by when he thinks of the cooler. A Government that tolerates such a nuisance, with a Custom House like ours, with roadsteads crowded with shipping like ours, with trade relations so gigantic as ours, must be composed of members whose brains are copped and copper fastened.

THE great Cacique is again in the field, devastating our frontier with fire and sword within a day's ride of the capital, and every hour brings more alarming news of the invaders. The memory of the March invasion is still fresh on our minds; it would seem the lesson then inflicted on the Indians by General Rivar was not so severe a kind as we were led to suppose. How many captives did they carry off to their 'toldos'? How many Christians did they kill in the last foray? How many cattle did they really take away? These are questions of an unpleasant nature that no one cares to investigate; and now we have news of a second 'malon' with the new moon of April.

Some persons got it into their heads yesterday that Mr. Lysandro Billinghurst was one of the parties who had gone to Rosario for Sir Roger Tichborne, alias Castro, alias Doolan, in London. We are authorized to state that Don Lysandro has had nothing whatever to do with the fit impostor, being quite too busy with his railway scheme to have time to make such undesirable acquaintances.

IMPORTANT FROM RIO. RUMORED CHANGE OF MINISTRY. Yesterday we received private advices from Montevideo announcing a great change of Ministry at Rio. Viscount Rio Branco, on the plea of ill health, has asked the Emperor to allow him to resign.

LATEST FROM TANDIL. IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE. Azul, April 14, 1872. To the Editors of the STANDARD. Gentlemen, I visited Tandil on the reported day of the execution of the three men sentenced to be shot, but found there was no chance of their being shot for some time yet, as on the arrival of the officer despatched from town to superintend the execution, the townspeople turned out, at least 500 strong, and refused to allow them to be executed until the others at present in custody were also condemned.

EDITOR'S TABLE. In another column will be found highly important intelligence from Tandil. We commend it to our readers, and also to the Government, which, perhaps, is already in possession of the news, though nothing official has been yet said about it. Tandil—Mr. Castro. Things are looking rather 'fishy' in Montevideo. The deaths from, and new cases of yellow fever are both on the increase.

RAILWAY TO QUILMES. The inauguration took place yesterday with great éclat, Mr. Wheelwright being accompanied by Governor Castro, Bishop Aneiros, Ministers Sarrié and Dominguez, several Ministers and Consuls and 400 other guests, the leading capitalists, merchants, bankers, brokers, editors, and public men of our city. The special train left town at 12.20, and made the journey in 55 minutes to Quilmes, where Dr. Wilde, and the Justice of Peace, with some 500 villagers, received us with rockets and bell-ringing. A deputation of young ladies presented a wreath to Mr. Wheelwright, and the road to the Juzgado was lined with villagers, 'paisanos,' &c., in holiday attire.

classes are now reduced, so much that they have no money to spend in caña. So much the better for them and the ribs of their wives. By the kind permission of the Municipality the 'Commission' of San Ignacio parish are about to fill in some pestiferous 'pananos' in Calles Moreno and Potosí. It is expected that the work will be finished in the year 1879, perhaps a week sooner.

Somebody said that a friend of his had Ohio features; it is suggested that Ohio has only one i, if that's what he means. We find an increasing number of deaths from small pox in the returns, and some from typhoid fever. The weather is close and unwholesome enough to kill a bishop, or even the whole episcopal bench.

The neighbors of Lujan are anxious to know when they are to have the promised bridge over the Cañada de Arías. The accommodation is badly wanted in the neighborhood, and we hope the Government will not forget Lujan; it has high claims.

The following poetical definition of the Press is highly instructive. Native colleagues please copy (translated of course). Now things are far altered, we all must confess. The light of the age is the Newspaper press—A thousand new stars stud the girth of the skies, Dispersing their light in millions of eyes. Here by the New Light you may read as you run, And find all the sciences blended in one—All our glory and shame, our plain truths and romances. Are found in one sheet, to be caught at a glance.

Some flash of romance specks on telegraph-wire— Sir Roger returns to possess an estate. And wondering thousands are watching his fate. And then comes a story of domestic strife— A monster divorce case of high life— Hereby the New Light you may read as you run, And find all the sciences blended in one— All our glory and shame, our plain truths and romances. Are found in one sheet, to be caught at a glance. In dull winter nights, as we sit by the fire, Some flash of romance specks on telegraph-wire— Sir Roger returns to possess an estate.

This worthy estanciero, whose many virtues and good qualities are alike well known both to his own countrymen and to several nations, had truly cause to be proud that day, for his name will ever be intimately associated with the building, and it is a lasting monument of his energy and zeal in the cause of religion.

The pleasure of addressing you, as I have been in Santa Fe and in the country, and have only just returned, and have not had time to give you the small items of news I have gathered since my arrival.

HINTS FOR THE GARDEN. Some who have kindly favored me with their orders for seeds of different sorts, and have complained that the seeds, and such like large seeds, have not come up well, I would advise such to try some more, but soak them in water first, by putting the seed into a basin, just covering it with water; they will absorb it all in about 12 or 15 hours, when they should be planted about three inches deep, but only one seed with one inch of soil.

MEMS. FROM PUNTA ARENAS. Several times a year the colony is visited by the Patagonians for the purpose of exchanging huano and ostrich skins for objects imported from the north; and this trade certainly does not represent a very contemptible figure in the exportation.

AMUSING SCENE. The last mails bring the following amusing report of a Japanese banquet in the States. San Francisco, January 24.—Near the close of the Japanese banquet last night a remarkable scene occurred.

THE ALABAMA QUESTION. We are indebted to an American gentleman for the following article on the Alabama question:—To say that the conclusion of the treaty of Washington was welcomed throughout this country as preparing the way for a settlement of all issues with Great Britain, and for the return of close friendship between the two nations, is but to tell a small part of the truth.
