lesia, has become the great business of these British Colonies. The combing wools cannot be successfully grown in Australia or the Cape.

Commander of National Guards at Dolores who clapped a round number of his rank and file into prison, because he had the temerity to wish to vote for their own candidates in preference to those of the gallant officer.

We heard very favourable news from the South yesterday. The districts so terribly cut up by the drought are now recovering owing to the late rains. All the strayed cattle are returning to their own camps, and the estancieros are in high spirits.

An article of ours yesterday on California's sudden transposition as to be intelligible, for which we have to beg indulgence of our readers: it is not worth reproducing in a correct form, and even if it were we have no room.

A rather serious row was threatened the other day at the Estrada quinta. The Municipality having lately ordered the opening of a new street between Calle Jimena and the Branca, it became necessary to throw some of Mr. Estrada's property.

We heard with pleasure yesterday of the appointment of Mr. Charles Hastings, of Mendoza, to a command in the Argentine navy. Mr. Hastings is an old and experienced sailor, having served ten years under that flag.

The other day a young English estanciero of Sta Fe was incautiously handling a revolver; some friends remarked that it should go off. He jeeringly stated that it was unloaded, and turned the muzzle to his breast.

THE WOOLLEN INDUSTRY OF GREECE. At the National Exhibition recently held at Athens, there were specimens of almost all descriptions of woollen fabrics produced in Greece, and the characteristic plainly enough illustrated.

The first sod of the Rosario Railway will be turned on Friday next. The ceremony will take place on a piece of ground between the Billinghurst and Almirante stations, purchased some time ago from Don Emilio Castro by Mr. Billinghurst.

A new fire engine imported by the Municipality, is now on view at Messrs. Colli's, calle Esmeralda. A few days ago it was tried by the Fire Brigade, several corporators being present to witness the experiments.

We received some papers from the provinces yesterday, but there was nothing in them. A Guayaquil, dated by another ruler named Olaseguena, is another ruler named Olaseguena, is another ruler named Olaseguena.

As a corollary to the foregoing paragraph, we find in a contemporary paper that a "convencillo" has just been discovered by the police in which 100 unwashed individuals live although the area of the house comprises only 32 square yards.

Some cases of intimidation are still turning up in connection with the present election. Amongst other instances of the kind of the occasion is a and one evil morning the girl gave in and was ruined. A little still she strove, and much repeated, and whispering 'I'll never consent, I'll never consent, I'll never consent.'

The rising generation was looking after badly. We have too many men about town, whose proper place is the schoolroom, or almost the nursery.

Several clerks in the Contaduria are now allowed to absent themselves during school hours. We had at first some difficulty in understanding this risible paragraph. It means, "we are Government house, are schoolboys, and are allowed to leave their official duty to take care of themselves, while they are taught their A B C and how to make not-books and hangers. This makes us believe what we are told, and we now fully understand how administrators, diplomats, generals, lawyers, and leading merchants are manufactured out of the fine native raw material supplied in such abundance, considering the limited population.

The "cooter" Guardia Nacional was expected by some sanguine brokers to arrive here yesterday, but the majority consider it doubtful that she will turn up before the middle of next week. A native paper has christened the unfortunate but the "Zooter." The "Zooter," Mr. Posadas.
