SAN JUAN TO CHILE. OFFICIAL REPORT OF M. NICOUR C. E.

Chacayes de Invernadas. April 1th. 1872. To the Governor of San Juan.

According to instructions we left San Juan to survey the passes and started by the Pichas and Durazno route as the most direct and suitable...

On arriving to Mr. Frías, the Argentine Minister, he recommended us to the Prime-minister Altamirano for any information that might assist our labors.

Resolving to begin the work and try for ourselves we started from Guardia San Antonio, where the Chilean highroads terminate...

1st. That although the Chileans admit the importance of making a carriage-road by Los Patos they have made no scientific surveys and are generally in the dark about it.

2nd. That they are still working away at a road by the Espinalda Pass and do not like to give up the idea...

3rd. That Mr. Frías last year proposed to make a survey of Los Patos, but this was absorbed in making rail-roads through the republic.

4th. The highest part is 3,460 feet lower than Espinalcito, or fully a thousand feet lower than the Planchón...

5th. There is no dangerous precipice, no steep incline or descent, such as we find in Los Patos, which it touches on at some points.

6th. The success of our labors far exceeds what were our expectations...

We shall, therefore, have the pleasure of submitting to the Government surveys and plans of the new route...

While the information which has now been obtained cannot fail to excite great interest in the scientific world...

This province has much to gain from a railway of the kind. Vast tracts of the fertile Pampas, where the savages...

Genoa is chiefly remarkable as the head-quarters of the vast Italian emigration to La Plata. It also exported to this country last year over 40,000 tons of merchandise...

It remains for commercial enterprise, aided by the Governments interest, to put the matter to carry to a practical issue...

OUR TRADE RELATIONS.

The Boletín Oficial gives the various Consular reports from Antwerp, Havre, Marseilles, Bordeaux, Bayonne, Cette and Genoa...

The trade of Havre shows a decline of one-fourth in arrivals and sailings, the same in dry hides, one-third in wool, and nearly 40 per cent. in tallow...

The Consular Agency at prices for River Plate produce such as unknown at Havre for 15 years...

THE GAS BUSINESS IN SOUTH AMERICA.

MUTUAL CONSUMERS COMPANY FOR BUENOS AYRES — THE STATUTES CONFIRMED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

According to appointment, the general meeting took place on Friday night in the Schoolroom of the Scotch Church.

Mr. Drysdale took the chair. The Secretary made the following statement:

The acting committee have not thought it necessary to submit to you any written report, but if you will allow me I will in a few words state the reasons which have induced them to call this meeting.

Mr. Bell, of Montevideo, so far back as 1856, tried with several influential men to start an opposition company in Buenos Ayres...

There are many improvements yet required in Buenos Ayres, and amongst the many can be mentioned— 1st—A better water supply.

FRAY BENTOS.

Having been refreshed by the recent rain, which succeeded a protracted drought, I write you a few lines worthy of being perused by your numerous readers.

The Library contains 3,509 English and 321 German books. The latter were a donation through Mr. Pott, from the late Mr. Gloede.

matter had to be examined it was necessary. Mr. Montague Williams, who is retained for the 'claimant,' made an application to the Recorder for a copy of the indictment, observing that it was very hard that the defendant should be kept so long without knowing the precise nature of the charges preferred against him.

It is generally understood that the specific charge is, that the claimant falsely swore, and that the officers of the Crown are preparing a mass of evidence to prove that he is Arthur Orton. It was, however, rumored that the crown would endeavour to delay the case till the May session.

The 'claimant,' in the meantime, is in good health and spirits, and even talks cheerfully of coming trial--truly a surprising character. He has received from his friends and supporters among the public seven or eight thousand pounds towards his defence.

The 'claimant,' in the meantime, is in good health and spirits, and even talks cheerfully of coming trial--truly a surprising character. He has received from his friends and supporters among the public seven or eight thousand pounds towards his defence.

Water seems to have marked poor Brazil for its own. The account of the Storm at Rio which we published yesterday was a mere dinner tumbler affair compared to the inundations at Para, Ceara and other places.

The following items from Brazil papers are interesting:-- "In respect to the water of a spring which rises five feet above high water, out of a rock in the ocean, 30 miles from Santos, Mr. Peckolt reports it to have a specific gravity of 1.090, and to contain in 100 parts 0.10022 of free hydrochloric acid, traces of free sulphuric acid, and 3.398 of salts of magnesia, lime, oxide of iron, potassa and soda combined with much sulphuric acid. Mineral springs holding iron acids, he says, are in general found near volcanic regions; which information suggests that Santos is nearer a hot locality than its inhabitants had been aware of.
