SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1872. THE BUDGET FOR 1873.

President Sarmiento and Minister Dominguez have presented to Congress the budget for the ensuing year...

The above figures would probably mislead our readers, as they do not represent the ordinary expenditure of the country...

In fact the real deficit is little over half-a-million or 2 1/2 per cent on the budget...

The Minister had probably valid reasons for including the old floating debt in the estimates for 1873...

In the estimates for the Home Department we notice 200,000 for the Central Argentine Railway...

The Foreign Office expenditure is too small to provoke criticism [119,372] and again suggests the idea...

The Finance estimates show that 40 per cent. of our entire revenue goes to pay the interest of the Public Debt...

The Department of Justice, Warship and Instruction shows a total of nearly 12 millions...

The War-office absorbs nearly a third of the whole, and shows an increase of 20 per cent on 1872...

The Executive submits to the Congress Deputies the subjoined budget for 1873...

Buenos Ayres, June 21st, 1873. Luis L. Dominguez.

PARIS LETTER.

The Bonapartist day ought to rejoice the hearts of the Bonapartists...

The reduction in the Home Department is only apparent, as the estimates for 1872 included 1,500,000 for the immigration, telegraphs, engineers, customs, public debt, schools, war and marine.

The last item is principally caused by the necessity of raising our standing army to ten thousand men...

The above estimates are fully half-a-million over what we anticipated will be the actual expenditure for 1873...

The first part of Rouher's discourse was all figures—a rule of three direct where the fourth proportional was found...

It is satisfactory to think that the Customs revenue will yield such an increase without any heavier duties...

Then it will become our arduous duty to make sundry reductions in certain duties and the abolition of others...

D. F. SARMIENTO. Luis L. Dominguez.

PROJECT OF LAW. The Senate and Chamber of Deputies fix the Budget for 1873 at 25,998,319$81 for the 5 public departments...

Buenos Ayres, June 21st, 1873. Luis L. Dominguez.

prominent representative decides to make a set of programme-speech, the political world is agitated, and ambassadors flock to see what is going to turn up...

Now that speech has been serious; discarding its motives, it fairly points out inaccuracies that an honorable and just assembly like that at Versailles must clear up...

The first part of Rouher's discourse was all figures—a rule of three direct where the fourth proportional was found...

It is strange, too, how that speaker Ducaud, who informed the troops that the place they were pitched up to was deserted...

What makes all this a little more strange is the fact that the influence of the Emperor and Empress, Imperial Family, Corps Diplomatique, etc., the most magnificent 'flare-up' of its kind ever given there.

wondered at. Alone from the badgering he received on the second day's debate, the decision of the Assembly has voted the order of the day unanimously...

Victor Hugo's latest is a grand address from the House; he speaks of that humanity which respects, starts or troubles a man's grand voice of Rome speaks to the great soul of Paris...

This time last year we were in Paris and saw the Emperor and Empress, Imperial Family, Corps Diplomatique, etc.

What makes all this a little more strange is the fact that the influence of the Emperor and Empress, Imperial Family, Corps Diplomatique, etc., the most magnificent 'flare-up' of its kind ever given there.
