General Mitre arrived yesterday. Landed early, and went at once to Government.

Mr. Riquardo sends down 6 men to fish factory at Patagonia. I have interviewed Mitre. Particulars by mail.

HISTORY OF THE PUBLIC WORKS LOAN. SPECIAL BLUE-BOOK. SECRET CORRESPONDENCE.

London, Nov. 8th 1870—Riestra tells you are willing to give us the preference, on equal conditions, for the new loan.

London, Jan. 7th. We have just received orders from M. Varela, at Brussels, to forward $50,000, which we ship in 10 boxes per Douro.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 1871. I send you new instructions. Government only wants to raise one million sterling, instead of 6 millions.

London, Feb. 8th 1871. I had arranged with Cohen and Sons to negotiate the loan at 88, on the 27th January, the taking two millions sterling for themselves, but afterwards broke it off, because they wanted 2 per cent. commission on the whole sum.

London, Oct. 7th. Beware of offers from adventurers. We shall do the rest of the loan by this time next year.

London, Oct. 8th. I had signed all the bonds before the power came for John Fair to sign. The Bank of England has raised its rate to 5 per cent, on account of my sending you $300,000.

London, Nov. 1871. The conduct of Government towards the Central Argentine railway is injurious and looks like repudiation. Nevertheless we will risk as much as $250,000 in each new emission, at 88.

London, March 16th, 1871. I have not received a line from you yet about the loan, but some letters from Cohen, Thomson, Bonar, and their attorney, Sir W. Drake, stating that you had not acted, rightly with them, and that the bad news from Buenos Ayres published in the Times of Feb. 2nd made the business doubtful.

London, March 18th. As M. Varela has refused Thomson Bonar's contract I cannot draw on them any more.

London, March 12th. We are holding up Argentine credit with our own resources, and no profit.

London, April 27th. President says better not sell any more unless you get much higher price. We have an offer for the Tucuman Railway in bonds at 95.

London, March 12th. We are holding up Argentine credit with our own resources, and no profit.

London, April 27th. We had to meet a perfidious and systematic opposition on the Stock Exchange, but when our lists closed at 6 p.m. on the 3rd more than the whole amount was subscribed for.
