TO allow a month to elapse before replying to a document of an unimpeachable character: for if Minister Correa had written his answer on the 20th of May...

his Royal Highness Duke of Edinburgh proceeded on Wednesday to open the Exhibition of Arts, Industries, and Manufactures...

At half-past twelve o'clock, his Royal Highness, accompanied by the Lord-Lieutenant and a select party, left the Vice-regal Lodge for the Exhibition Palace...

The river steamer Portena entered port yesterday morning from Montevideo. She brought our files of English papers to the date, per Boyne...

Our Packet Edition for the R.M.S. Boyne, which will sail homeward on Tuesday next, will appear on Monday at noon.

We received a letter yesterday from our friend and former conferee Mr. G. P. Craufurd, now in Rio, and who we are happy to say, is quite well.

Accounts from Rio state that public opinion there is now eminently favorable to a pacific solution of all questions...

The rain came down in cat, dog and pitchfork fashion yesterday after breakfast, interfering with the business and comfort of everyone.

The English papers to hand are brimming over with new foreign schemes of every description to obtain money from Mr. Bull...

On Monday next, at midnight, the entries for the 'Influence of Climate' Essays will close.

It is a pity that the appearance of having something queer inside. Unless there are more entries there can be no race.

The Coliseum is open to night for roller skating, also on Monday and Tuesday.

"Skating, said a well-known clergyman in the South of England, finding himself very unsteady on his skates...

IS THE EARTH ROUND? A curious trial took place at the Guildhall on Thursday. It was an action for damages for libel, brought by Mr. Alfred Russell Wallace...

Mr. Wallace did not know the defendant at all until the January of 1869, when Mr. Hampden published a challenge to all scientific men to enter into competition with him on the question as to whether the earth was a flat surface or a globe...

PHINCE ALFRED IN IRELAND. OPENING OF THE DUBLIN EXHIBITION.

The Duke of Edinburgh arrived at Kingstown, on board the Galatea, at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning.

"When two Governments are sincerely anxious to act rightly it is not the passing imprudence of a Minister which can array in arms against other two nations so recently united in one common cause."

"The sentiments of President Sarmiento on opening Congress, the prudence of the Argentine legislators, lead us to hope that cool reflection will have its influence on our Argentine counsils...

It is our decided opinion that Dr. Quintana was perfectly right in the conditions demanded by him at Assuncion previous to his retirement; and even if he were not this would never justify Baron Cotegipe's proceeding in making a separate treaty with Paraguay.

At the present stage of affairs it would appear that the indignation alluded to as having nearly died out, still shows how wise it is sometimes

HOLT'S RIBBON HAND STAMP.

SOLE AGENT FOR SOUTH AMERICA J. F. BAILEY, 113 CALLE RIVADAVIA.

The above cuts represent one style of these Stamps, and an impression of the same. There are various sizes, both of those with dots and those without dots, suited to every use.

Wanted by the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

By having our own agents at the places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise the most careful selection which insures uniformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition.

As a means of building up the constitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other purgative pills, which do more harm than good, our Sarsaparilla is administered with safety to the weakest patients.

As hundreds of others of the Commerce of Buenos Ayres and the Province, lists of whom will be published from time to time.

J. F. BAILEY, 113-CALLE RIVADAVIA-113
