The Colonel says that whatever beef and tobacco he gave the above 34 tribes was at his own personal cost, for the public welfare, and he begs to enquire of the War Minister whether the Government will recognize his acts and reimburse him, that he may act in similar manner next time?

invitation to assist at such on auspicious occasion, and hoped that many, both old and young, would see the benefits to be derived from a regular and sincere attendance at church, and the derived therefrom, as compared to worldly enjoyments, which are as things of the moment. He hoped, therefore, that many weak of faith would see their backsliding and come forward with all hope and love, con families will continue as hitherto, hosgood example to the young.

Mr. William Dodds conducted the musical service, the usual choir being assisted by a number of the choir of the Rev. Mr. Smith's church, Buenos Ayres; the harmony being the best we have had the pleasure of hearing in Chascomus. We took particular note of the man ner in which the last four verses of the Psalm XXIV. was given; tune, St

George's, Edinburgh. We will now conclude our notice of this eventful occasion by giving a short account of the building. About a year ago, the managers and congregation, taking into consideration the frail state of their former house and the increas ing attendance, determined upon orectceeded with the good work. The church is seated to accommodate about 240 persons with suitable offices annexed, and ample room for aking care of carriages and horses. We understand that the committe of management are still short of suf ficient money to thoroughly complete the building, there having been some alterations from the original plans for the greater convenience of the edifice We, therefore, hope the public will come forward, and liberally subscribe for so desirable a consummation. The committee in charge of the building of the church, whose hearts have been in the good work, we comclusion of a great work.

We received the following appalling news by the mail:—A man of figures, an Englishman, of course, proves that within a certain period every other human being in England and Wales will be a lunatic oridiot! There are at present in the kingdom and principality 58,640 persons of unsound mind, being an increase of 1,885 upon the cases recorded on the 1st of January, 1871. The increase is greatest among paupers—a class likely to increase. The number of lunatics and idiots has been steadily growing greater since been steadily growing greater since 1859, from which time the Commissioner's tables date, and unfortunately the increase is not to be accounted for by a reference to the increase of population. Well,' not to bother with figures, the lamentable conclusion is that, at a certain period, a moiety of the inhabitants will be maniaes. And yet who believes in this? The historical experience of the world from Anno Mundi to Anno Domini, proves such home, from its an enormous aberration of the intellect of the race, or of any given portion of it, to be improbable, and we may even say impossible. Thank Venus old Ireland and canny Caledonia are left out of the calculation. Even the postage stamps are "Doctors" in this blessed country. Yesterday morning we found in our "buzon" a letter addressed, in a fine round mercantile hand, to "Sr. Dr. Dn. Postage Stamp, 118 Calle San Martin". On opening the "cuir" looking envelope with this queer address we found an of Doc. but sellers came forward so freely that the bulls lost faith and to market closed flat. The following were the sales with this queer address we found an advertizement of a B. Ayres Directory for 1873, which the author promises shall contain every information under the sun or over the moon. A good Directory for this city is badly wanted. and we hope this present attempt to establish one will meet with more support than its predecessors, which all went to the bottom with the rapidity of a three ton anchor. At No. 109 Calle Potosi, all 'pormenores' and receipts for subscriptions to the Directory can be had.

We have advices from Asuncion to the 10th inst. Things are quiet. The Horrocks tramway (up there they call it a tramveal), was going ahead rapidly, and is probably finished by this time to the railway station. The mataderos of Trinidad are also progres-ing. On the 25th there will be a grand flare up to commemorate the swearing of the constitution (shocking place for constitutional swearing in South America). The papers say that toreign capitalists are dying to lend Paraguay more money! (A fool and his money, etc.) Gold is at 20 per cent. premium in Asuncion. Some marriages are on the 'tapis,' and Mr. Baltran, the writer to the Signet, has been allowed to resume his profession.
