LOSS OF THE GAMBIE.

The news of the loss of this fine French mail steamer reached us on Tuesday by telegram, yesterday the mails from Brazil per Boyne give the following further particulars.

LOSS OF THE GAMBIE.

The French Mail Company Messageries has just almost totally lost one of its finest steamers, the Gambia, on the line between Europe and the River Plate on the morning of 25th March just as she was entering the harbor of Bahia, and in the midst of a dense fog, the Gambia went on the rocks at a place called Pan de Pinho close in to the shore.

LOSS OF THE GAMBIE.

The captain and officers refused however to leave the ship, and stood by her in the hope that succour might come in some shape, and she could be got off.

LOSS OF THE GAMBIE.

The first news of the disaster reached Bahia at 6 a.m., brought by an officer of the Gambia, and at 2.30 same day.

LOSS OF THE GAMBIE.

The Gambia is almost a total wreck, and not the slightest prospect of getting her off.
