

nounce. Standing as we do in the vortex of no matter what, we can read, write and pronounce the name just as well as any German in the River Plate can write or pronounce 'Leighlin bridge,' but we have been asked by leading native residents of the locality to suggest to the German some more mellifluous cognomen. Will he do it?

tin Garcia, has been gazetted to be second Gefe of the 1st Regiment of the Line. Major Donovan is a good soldier, and has well earned this promotion.

fabrics or not. The total value of woollens manufactured in 1850 was $43,207,545; and in 1870 it became $68,868,963, and in 1870 it had reached the sum of $155,405,058.

The second observation to be made is the impolicy of laying any duty on foreign wools. This was done for the first time in 1807 in response to the clamor of the wool-grower, who thought he needed protection quite as much as the manufacturer.
