An accident which might have been of very serious consequences has happened to young George P. Howard...

The following will interest any "star gazers" amongst our readers, and, possibly, others also...

The accounts from the camp continue splendid. The late rains have shot the grass up like magic...

A smart brush with the Indians took place on the Western frontier last week...

A funeral service for the late General Conesa will be celebrated at the Cathedral to-morrow...

There was a magnificent function at the Socorro Church on Sunday, Monday and yesterday...

The most astounding item in the Santiago news from Europe is the announcement that, through the friendly offices of Russia, Metz is to be restored to France...

The numerous friends of Mr. G. P. Crawford will be glad to learn that he is booked to return to the Plate by the Royal Mail Steamer Douro...

We much regret to hear that a son of Don Torquato Alvarez was seriously wounded on Sunday while shooting at a mark with revolvers...

Shocking news. Two of our subscribers who went down to the Monte Nevado, and were returning, were seen positively that they saw the bunch of asparagus stolen from Mr. Wineberg on the Bolsa here exposed for sale in the sister city...

A grand concert in aid of the Asilo Hospital at the Mount will come off in that city on the 19th inst. The Commission consists of President Estauri, chairman, and Messrs. Eyan, Vico, Messrs. Fleury, Alvarez, Vega, Soc, and Naylor, of the R.P. Bank, Treasurer...

The Rosario folk intend to statue President Sarmiento if he does not veto the Capital law. It is hard to see how he can avoid doing so...

A teacher, in struggling to make a tough-brained boy understand what conscience is, finally asked, "What makes you feel bad after you have done wrong?" "My Papa's big leather strap," feelingly replied the boy...

The very gravest fears are entertained for the safety of the Patagonia, bound from Valparaiso to Montevideo; she is now 13 days overdue.

The loss of the Anna Francis, bound from Cardiff to Rosario, has led to a Board of Trade enquiry...
