THE PARAGUAYAN SUFFERERS. To the Editors of the STANDARD. Gentleman, The recent outflow of liberality on the part of our English residents in bringing the immigrants from Paraguay, and attending to them here, is worthy of all praise.

It was only necessary for our community to know that a large number of our countrymen were in distress in order to arouse their sympathy and obtain their assistance, which has been bestowed with a bounty worthy of the English name.

The Bishop of Cuyo and several of his clergy have arrived in town to be present at the ceremonies in the Cathedral on Sunday next. Canon Clara, of Cordoba, has also come down.

TO BRING these people down at the cost of large subscriptions, and to assist them in obtaining clothing, thus relieving their most pressing wants, is doing a good work; but to leave them to form the impression that they have unbounded claims on the English community for further support is, in my opinion, to do them a grievous injury.

THE LATEST thing out has turned up in the Engineers' Office. It is an iron-clad ambulance car, with a portable bridge on the roof, to assist the passage of rivers. We see nothing new whatever in these ironclads; besides they are unnecessary; very few armies fire on ambulances.

IT STILL remains to be seen if the Paraguayan Sufferers are sober, industrious additions to the population, or worthy of the generosity that has been so unparingly poured upon them.

WE TAKE the following from the New York Republican. We commend its perusal to all the subscribers of every paper in town:— Stop my paper.— A former subscriber, who discontinued his subscription because he could not make it say just things as he thought it ought to say, has, we learn, recently expressed considerable surprise to his friends that the paper should keep running—since he has withdrawn his patronage. It was pretty close work for a while, we confess; but by omitting to put sugar in our tea, and by buying a cheaper grade of paper colors and reversing them for the second and third time, we managed to rub along until a new subscriber came and to get the place of our respected but disgruntled friend, and then Richard was himself again. Nothing but rigid economy will carry one safely over such a calamity as the loss of a subscriber."

THE MONTEVIDEAN papers to hand yesterday contain very little news. The Government was to be intercepted yesterday as to the sending of a Special Envoy to the Government here. There was a rumour that all the Portefeuilles had been taken, but this cannot be true or the telegraph would have let us know here. The friends of the owner of the Portefeuille are thinking of making them a present of another steamer to replace her. A rather nice present this. Montevideans have big hearts and big purses, at least some of them have. The following barbaqueros have been named as a Commission to see after the produce entering the market, so as to prevent any more cut hides being exported. Carlos Uribe, Joaquin Nin, Luis Paig, Eduardo D. Espasquin, Jeronimo Oliviera (hijo), Supteacis, Adolfo Labrousse, Juan B. Bayona, Jose de Lapente, Estanislao Rodriguez, Cornelio P. Pereyra.

THE GALICIA brought out 488 passengers, nearly all of whom were for Buenos Ayres. The next Bonaeventure steamer will bring out over 1,000, as the La France, as yet, having many behind, is no more.
