There was a complete reaction in the stock market to-day, caused by the news from Brazil which came down to a leading banking firm of this market, to the effect that all questions pending between Brazil and the Argentine Republic are to be referred to arbitration.

The fair cloper from Mr. Negrotto's hotel at Flores, about whom there was so much gossip yesterday, turns out to be a 'muñaca' of the Urrioste family, who are staying at the hotel.

We have a request to make of Mr. Arocena and the Directors of the Provincial Bank, not on our own behalf, but on that of several fair Portefías and foreigners who are anxious to inspect the new Bank building before it is opened for business.

The present fortune which Her Imperial Highness the Duchess of Edinburgh brings to her husband is only £9000 a year, and this is little enough for her wardrobe.

The City of Buenos Ayres Tramway Company has applied for permission to run a double-track tram line from the Northern Railway station at the Retiro to join their lines at Calles Córdoba, 25 de Mayo, and Paseo Julio.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Manchester Examiner gives the following account of the reception of the heir to the English throne by the Czar of All the Russias.

The Province Bank discounted yesterday from 9 to 10 millions. At the National Bank very little is done.

Mr. G. Evans of Chacabuco reports the camps out there in good condition. No wool at all about there; some novillos for market sold at 110 m/c Good price that.

The numerous friends of Mr. William Makera, of this market, will be pleased to hear that he has returned to the B. B. and is now in Mendoza through whose great attention we received late 100 papers.

The following is the latest from Liverpool 21st January: At Havre yesterday about half the wool offered was sold; about a third at 1d. per lb. lower than in November, while long stapled is lower than on the whole, the rates recently established by private contract have been maintained.

"On dit" that it is unlikely that Nil Desperandum will run at the approaching Lanus meeting, as owners of horses are afraid to enter them against him.

By the Bordeaux supplemental mail we have received the Times of 23rd Jan. We extract the following from its interesting articles: Thursday Evening: "The specie movements in connection with the Indian famine, which have created disturbance in the Calcutta money-market, are now to some extent influencing our own, and have led to a temporary depression."

"River Plate produce is selling here as usual with great facility, but unfortunately the prices paid on your side for wool, sheepskins, tallow and hides are much above the European value."

"We have nothing of moment to report about sheep, some more trifling sales have been made at unchanged prices. The report from the States are hardly so strong and it looks as if some improvement in that market is not so genuine as we thought it to be."

The following is the result of the drawing for the 1st match of the single-wicket tournament to be played at Palermo during the season, in conformity with the recent resolution of the Committee: 1st Match. H. Marshall 1. Menzies versus A. Clarke 2. Higgs.

THE 'Burial of Carnival' To-day this important ceremony will take place, with all its mock pagantary, suitable to the occasion. Let us hope that the dirty water more of the detestable dirty water of National reputation, which soiled our Sunday clothes, will be purged away as our Sunday clothes, if I may be so bold as to call it a 'burial' of Carnival.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU AND CO. 101-Calle Cangallo-103 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporium of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep a one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned. Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mau & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mau & Co. are also persuaded that the new branch of their business will render immense services to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2d January, 1867. P. P. MAU & Co., M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

CONDITIONS. First-The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second-The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. c.) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third-The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth-Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth-In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
