

On the 1st of March the Gas Company will cut off the supply of light to the city, as the Corporation don't pay the eight millions paper dollars they owe for gas already supplied.

Late on Tuesday night a gentlemanly looking man, without baggage, entered the Hotel San Martin, and asked for a bed room for the night. He got it. About 7 o'clock a.m. yesterday morning there was a row in that hotel enough to raise the dead.

The Montevideans are still examining their consciences as to whether it would be a mortal sin to open their precious port. It is a mortal sin to keep it shut so long and so unnecessarily.

The health of Buenos Ayres was never better since the Creation. On Tuesday the number of deaths in the city was only nine, or a little over one-third the average.

Mr. Biecker, the eminent German brewer in Calle Juarez, had a narrow escape of being 'stuck' for 10,000 paper dollars a few days ago.

There has been a kick-up in the Social Club at Rosario for some reason connected with the Carnival balls. The President and Secretary of the Club have resigned.

A lady of the shoddy aristocracy found, on returning from a walk, some visiting cards on her table. She called a servant in great haste saying, "John, John, take these and run quick! Them ladies is torget their tickets!"

"Gastos de Epidemia" is an expression that now bears pretty much the same signification as Mrs. Captain Rag's unfathomable head of "Sundries."

"A Milwaukie paper recently published a lengthy code of 'rules to govern people who are drowning.' This a contemporary thinks is a good idea, and should be followed by several similar codes.
