Many people supposed yesterday that the Mr. Gomez who recently died at Montevideo was Don Juan Ramon Gomez, the leading capitalist. We are happy to say such is not the case.

Dear Davis interviewed us yesterday to the effect that he delivered all the thousand and twenty subscribers early on Thursday morning last. He was so busy that he had not time to let us know earlier.

DEAD CATTLE. Capilla del Señor, April 22nd, 1874. To the Editors of the STANDARD. Gentlemen,

Now that the whole Argentine Republic is absorbed in elections the public health is entirely thrown into oblivion. Anyone who takes a ride over the Nazari, Uriuri and De la Torre estancias in the partido of Zarate, will not, I am sure, say to the contrary, when he sees the innumerable quantity of putrescent carcases lying in heaps of ten and twelve.
