quarters, having only remained 24 hours in the capital. Telegraphic communication is very irregular...

The Douro Mails. LATEST FROM ENGLAND. The splendid mail-steamer Douro, commanded by the popular Captain Thwaites, has brought the following passengers—

The Douro sailed from Southampton the 9th of April, arrived at Rio 30th at 5 p.m., sailed again 2nd May at 5 p.m., reaching Montevideo 6th May at 9 a.m.

Information has been received at Portsmouth that Sir Garnet and Lady Wolsey have left England, and will not return till the first week in May.

Yesterday the annual Conference of Miners began its sittings at Manchester; Mr. Thomas Halliday in the chair.

The lock-out of Cambridgehire labourers continues to be the chief topic to which public attention is directed in that county.

At Cologne, yesterday, a meeting was held at which an address was adopted declaring that it would be an international calamity if the Parliament and the Government failed to come to an understanding on the Military Bill...

Further particulars of the escape of M. Rochefort and his companions are telegraphed from Sydney.

A telegram from India states that in the eastern sub-division of the Chumparni district the distress is not yet acute. Eighty thousand persons are employed on the Government works...

Telegrams yesterday from Madrid announce that Serrano's army has been duly reinforced before Bilbao...

Congress is to be held shortly at Rome, to treat various economic questions. A fortified camp being constructed outside Rome. The Pope gave communion to 60 prelates on Holy Thursday in the Sixtine Chapel.

Consols closed yesterday at 92 to 4 for money, and 92 1/2 for the account. There was a decline in a few British railways.

Relations between Bolivia and Chile are not over-friendly, and an association has been formed at La Paz under the name of 'Bolivian Defenders.'

Mr. Disraeli has declined to attend the approaching demonstration at Chelmsford to celebrate the return of ten Conservative members for Essex.

Don Jose Manuel Estrada, the accomplished writer and lecturer, is going to give a series of Lectures on Political Economy, as he did in previous years on Argentine History.

We may naturally infer from the high character of the lecturer that he takes his stand-point from an elevation far above the passions or prejudices of the hour...

Not much business done on 'Change to-day. Douro and Puno both entered, and as Dr. Emprestio Gomar was expected by the Deuda people...
