Valparaiso, Mayo 11, de 1874.

Competentes miembros de la Sociedad Nacional Agrícola reunieron para examinar un barril de carne conservada de ocho meses, según la sistema de Vasquez.

El resultado fué magnífico. Carnes de diferentes clases estaban en perfecto estado. La Comisión organizó un pequeño banquete para probar la calidad y dió informe muy favorable.

ON 'CHANGE

Table with exchange rates for various currencies and goods as of May 11th, 1874.

The Cedula market ruled very dull today, and what with the rain and the non opening of Congress the day was a quiet one enough on 'Change.

The dark news of the day was from Montevideo: one or two parties here knew its import but as the Telegrams of Saturday had not come up, very few were aware of the truly startling disclosure in that paper of Saturday evening.

There was great talk on 'Change to-day about the opening of Congress, which it seems is arranged for Wednesday 'sain fairs.' Heavy wagers were made among the brokers as to the reading of the message.

Mr. Sarmiento is short-sighted and requires glasses. Up to 4 p.m. the point was not settled. Cedula ruled flat enough in the day, but in the afternoon stiffened somewhat.

The artists' annual ball, where all the actors and actresses of Paris are to be met with, has just been held, and with unusual brilliancy.

On French railways monster smashes are rare; but as a set-off little accidents are very frequent and uncommonly fatal.

The Romanus had their gladiators; the Gauls their combats of bears; the French, those of dogs; Spaniards, bulls; the English, cocks; and the Indians, elephants.

Charity is the salt of riches; without that preservative they would corrupt. Between two electors; "as I cannot read, I put a cross on my bulletin."

Waiter in a restaurant to a gentleman dining on a pigeon: "Stop, stop Monsieur; you have swallowed the latest invention; we have killed the wrong pigeon."

the Republic, in what is considered the busiest season. No wonder we leave to ship gold to Europe by every steamer.

On Saturday a petition was sent into Congress asking for a subvention to start an indigo plantation and factory in Corrientes.

There is little business to report in their since our last. The market is nominally firm, and prices are about the same as then quoted.

At length shows symptoms of a slight improvement, and we hear of a sale of a cargo of good beef for the Continent, at a price equal to about 30s. 6d., but we cannot look for any material improvement in this article, as the market is so much affected by the numerous substitutes which have lately come into use.

This market is in a satisfactory condition notwithstanding the very large quantity arriving for the next colonial sales, which began on the 8th inst.

The next auctions in Liverpool are fixed for the 21st inst and 22nd do, when it is expected about 4,000 b will be offered.

There has not been much doing in this article. For fair to good mixed wool quote 11 1/2 to 10 per lb. In Antwerp the sock is same and prices are a little higher.

There is no indication of an advance, although such step is not unusual towards the beginning of May.

There is no further improvement in the hide market. Wool—the market is very bare of stocks, and the domestic clip has been disposed of much earlier than usual.
