MONTEVIDEOAN LETTER. We have had no cause to get into any state of excitement to-day, either about town or on the Bolsa.

RELATIONS WITH EUROPE. We have no need of Europe or her monarchical traditions, but the working-classes of Europe gladly flock to our shores...

FOREIGN AFFAIRS REPORT. Dr. Tejedor's report for his department forms a volume of 1,100 pages, the introduction serving as a digest of the whole...

RELATIONS WITH AMERICAN STATES. As the Argentine Republic has already lost Banda Oriental, Paraguay and Bolivia, which formed parts of the old viceroyalty of Buenos Ayres, it is doubly necessary...

but we reply that the custom-house privileges to mail-steamers amount to a subsidy on our part. A Congress is about to be held at Berné to abolish postage-charge on letters in transit through a country, and we incline to this view...

The Spanish Government proposed a convention on Copy-right, but our own legislation on this point is imperfect, and Congress will have to determine whether this should extend to translations, and the like.

A complete collection of our treaties is much required. That of 1863 was only a kind of Index, and the Registro Nacional is imperfect.

Regulations upon the pay and travelling expenses of Ministers and Secretaries of our Governments to other countries are called for.

Argentine travellers abroad often find themselves in want of passports, which have been abolished among us as a nuisance.

The documents connected with G. Britain consist of two notes from the Hon. Sackville West, one to the effect that the British Government applauds the attitude of the Argentine Cabinet on the question of Patagonia...

Another volume of 280 pages has just been handed us, as a supplement to the above. It bears entirely on the Chilean question, the last despatch being from Dr. Tejedor, dated April 27th 1874.

Orders for up-river ports are considerable in the market, but these cannot be filled, owing to the scarcity of 'cabotage' craft, and shippers are offering double the usual freight to secure place to fulfill their orders and obligations.

The Calderon arrived from Rio de Janeiro last night, to be visited by the Captain of the Port. She brings no news, excepting that the Comde d'Erre and his wife are shortly expected to arrive at that port.

THE BRITISH CHORAL SOCIETY. In the midst of the many improvements that are daily springing up around us in everything but city lights, we are most happy to notice that our progress is not all confined to such heavy blessings as drainage works and tramways...

The concert we were favoured with on Tuesday evening was, according to the unanimous vote of all who were fortunate enough to be present, a very musical festivity.

As regards the appointment of Consuls and Vice-consuls I find it necessary at times to make enquiries in one case a Vice-consul, turned out to be a deserter from our Nat. Guard.

The appendix is so voluminous that we shall merely give the heads, reserving for ourself the amusement of a future idle hour to analyse some of the Glyptodonts, Megatheriums, and Ichthyosauri of so extensive a field of research.

EDITOR'S TABLE. We publish to-day a 'precis' of the Memoir sent to Congress by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Tejedor. The Minister's report was anxiously looked for as likely to afford the public some insight into the mazes of the Brazilian question.

A 'gentle rain from Heaven' began to fall about 9 o'clock on Friday night and continued at intervals all day yesterday. The City Improvements inauguration escaped the wet by a very close shave.

Funny names abound in this quarter of the globe. We perceive that a Mr. Grazia-Dei has obtained the contract for building the two new 'casillas' on the Mole, at a cost of 13,845 pats.

The talented special correspondent of the Prensa in Paris was recently 'buckled' to a charming creature named Wall. All the literary 'swells' in Paris were present, and Alexandre Dumas acted as 'best man'.

We publish to-day an interesting critique on the recent concert of the Choral Society: it was kindly sent to us yesterday by a most competent amateur who was present.

Our excellent Cordoba colleague El Progreso, complains bitterly of postal arrangements up there. It rarely receives the Buenos Ayres papers, at least those published in Spanish.

The Edward Everett which arrived this morning from the Uruguay, will sail for Montevideo at 5 p.m. We remind the public that this is the only steamer that leaves to-day for that port.

A General Meeting of the Buenos Ayres Thespian Society will be held at their Club Rooms, 121 Calle San Martín (altos), to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock sharp.

We regret to inform the proprietors of second-hand sporting-guns that the subscriber we wanted one for has secured a weapon by private purchase at a strictly reserved price, so he is out of the market.

We hear from Cordoba that the works of the railway to Tucuman are still going ahead, and that two trains per day will shortly run to and from Jesús María.

The Custom House has now on hand a choice lot of ladies' dresses, all fresh from Paris. No connection with any other house in the trade. The garments were secured a dead bargain from a leading importing house.

An old farmer said to his sons, 'Boys, don't you ever wait for sunset to turn up. You might just as well go sit down on a stone in the middle of a meadow, with a pair of waxy legs, and wait for a cow to back up to you to be milked.'

We have of late been so fortunate in tracing out missing friends that we think of starting a special detective department for the hunting up of lost relatives.

There is a tremendous fizzle up in Paraguay against Mr. Benitez, Paraguayan Envoy in London. He is said to be rolicking on the fat of the 1872 Loan.

The Rowing Club's Boat-house at the Riachuelo is now finished, and presents a very good appearance as seen from Southern Railway Bridge.

Nothing is sacred for some people. Some unbaptized (he must be) vagabond has lately fastened on the poor, hardworking STANDARD as a mark for swindling.

We hear that the English hotel in Lobos, under Mr. Joyce's management, meets a necessity long felt.

We hear that the English hotel in Lobos, under Mr. Joyce's management, meets a necessity long felt.

The Cadula market rule's very flat yet prices are sustained, the general opinion of the ring is indicated in the fact that the stock rules lower in time than for cash.

South America is beginning to figure prominently in European enterprise. The mail brings intelligence of a gigantic contract for tramways through the South side of Paris and its suburbs.

President Sarmiento's intention of asking Congress for £40,000 to lay out a People's Park at Palermo has produced a cry of universal approval.

The fair and benevolent ladies of St. Vincent de Paul's Society have arranged a concert for Wednesday evening next, at the Coliseum.

Another passenger for the Editorial Bus. The General Advertiser will appear on the 1st prox. Price of subscription, nothing; 5,000 copies distributed in town daily.

In Paysandu last week a woman murdered another in broad daylight in the open street. The crime was committed with a huge 'facon.'

The Mount papers received yesterday say that the Brazilian Government has ordered 3000 tons of coal to be stored on the island of Cerrito.

Five of the ruffians who escaped from the Cerro were overtaken at Casupa a few days ago and shot dead by the Police.

There is a tremendous fizzle up in Paraguay against Mr. Benitez, Paraguayan Envoy in London.

Mr. Bateman gave a grand banquet on Friday evening to all the engineers engaged in the City Improvement Works.

VERY LATEST. ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.

LATEST FROM EUROPE. Valparaiso, May 16, 1874. European dates (via Panama) to 19th ult.

The Transatlantic Company's steamer America wrecked on the coast of France during recent gales.

Peru.—On the 7th, the Garibaldi with the Duke of Genoa on board, arrived at Callao.

ON 'CHANGE. May 16th, 1874.

Table with exchange rates for various goods and currencies.

Some exchange was passed to-day for Nord America at 49, and the rate stands takers at 49.

It appears now that the total amount of exchange passed by the Provincial Bank up to the present is only £230,000, which is nearly £100,000 under what was generally estimated.

Parties from the camp report in some districts things improving—Merced camps good, but sheep losses in sheep, owing to the thief.

News arrived at the Plaza Once to day of the murder of a well-to-do Irish sheepfarmer on Messrs. Pacheco's estancia at Salto.

The new Gas Company has taken for office the whole ground floor of the large two story house Calle Victoria No. 227.

The Cadiz has been brought very important advices from Rio. Sovereigns have taken another jump up, £55,000 sold at 9.40, 9.50, 9.52, cash, and at 9.50 and 9.55 on time.

The Mount papers received yesterday say that the Brazilian Government has ordered 3000 tons of coal to be stored on the island of Cerrito.

It was asserted to-day on 'Change by one of the first native money brokers of the Plata that no improvement in this market can be expected until we kill 7,000,000 of sheep.

This was a hard Saturday enough, owing to the heavy payments for exchange and produce, and the three or four fiances that occurred during the week.

Some very startling news was down from the Tucuman Railway. The report was that the man had struck and Mr. Tolson's life was in danger.

There was great talk on 'Change to day about the list of the new Cabinet which we published. The fact that Don Bernardo Irigoyen will be at the head of the new Ministry is welcomed by all.
