THE REASON WHY THE HAIR FALLS OFF.—Whenev r the cuticle shrinks from disease, age, or other cases, it presses hard around the roots of the hair, thereby preventing the coloring substance and vital element from passing up from the roots. In order to freshall this, difficulty, it becomes necessary to apply the Oriental Tonic every morning and night, combining with it a vigorous use of the brush, the object being to renovate the vital ty of the cuticles and soften the vesicles. This is soon attained, and the interrupted commenceation between the bulbs and har is renewet, resulting in a brilliant, silky, abundant, and enhanced crop of hair.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Royal Mail Company's steamship Liffey, Captain Donne, sailed yesterday for Europe with a heavy mail and a fair number of passengers. Amongst these was Mr. Naylor, formerly co-Manager of the River Plate Bank here. There was not much of a demonstration, the day being raw and chilly. The papers to hand from the sister city yesterday morning contain turther news from Europe to 8th inst. There is no doubt about the fall of Bilbao, which was entered by Coucha and Serrano at noon on the 1st, amidst a delirious ovation from the inhabitants, who were half starved, the Governor, General Castillo, coming in for a full share of the popular gratitude. It is a curious fact that the street which suffered most from the Carlist bombardment was that called 'Siete Calles', all the houses in which belong to Carlists sympathisers. The respective losses in the five days fighting were 1,200 Republicans and 250 Carlists, amongst the latter General Andechaga, sassinate Pi y Margall: three shots it again after his long illuess. Nothing important from other parts of Europe. A letter at the last moment from Carlist sources states that General Elio; the Carlist Commander in Chief, had changed his plan, and part of it was to abandon the siege of Bilbao. This intelligence, we must say, reads rather

"like a whale". We regret to hear of the death of that distinguished naval officer Ad. miral Lauman, once commanding the U. States squadron in South American waters. The deceased Admiral was equally popular with the public and the officers and crews under him. Letters have been received from Mr. Dominguez, ex-Finance Minister, and now Argentine Plenipotentiary to Peru. H. E. had a shocking passage to Valparaiso, storm and high seas all the way; he did not visit Santiago, but went straight on to Callao.

wi l have a hundsoine balance. Although we ha e not much interest in the London woo auctions still it may concern a few to know that the great auction began on the 29th Ap.il, an . will hold to 17th June. 300,000 bales colonia, wool will be offered; but these bales are smader than ours. Australian felt off terribly, 11d per lb; the fail up t, the latest is 2d per lb. At Bordeaux 2,940 biles River Plate were put up for sale; only 740 sold at February rates. The Antwerp auction so far shows better; in fact there is no market in Europe for River Plate wood to rival Antwerp., Superior mestiza, 1.95 first cargo received this season of ruguay salaoffered. The 4,707 ox, composing same, sold beyond expectations, as follows: 12 sound x, 15 . 0 k, av. weight 19k, at fr 85 396 do, 20-26 k do, 2 k fr 90 2825 do, 25-32 k do, 28 k fr 90-93, av. 92 869 do, 32-40 k do, 32 k fr 84.16, av. 85]

It seems the sale could not be repeated now.

"The Leipzig leather fair came off pretty well. "The reports from England are very dull. The cargo of 6,400 Uruzuay ox per City of St. Asaph, arrived at Falmouth from Fray Bentos, which was offered floating at 83d., and remained un that the Bank of England rate is again down sold, has been ordered here. "The future course of artic'e remains very un has set in unusually early, and tanners are rently to re-ume working until late in the year, which may c use again a large and injurious ac cumulation at the sea ports.

"The stock on hands here on the 1st instant of 77,500 hides was composed of 10,5 0 dry matadoro ox, 16,200 do cow-, 25,000 campos, 1,900 -acellaneous, and 3,100 horse hides.

To the above we may safely add 1,300 pats earned by the same backer in the open market which gives for the two months of March and April the handsome sum of 5000 pats., or say in round numbers 30,000 pats, per annum; and yet there are brokers in this market who do a much larger business than the broker referred to.
