

The first performance of Madame Ristori, announced for this evening, has been unavoidably postponed till the 25th.

We have news from the camp in another column. Things are not quite so bad as they were before the late rains, but still look ruin enough.

General Ivanowski's letter explaining the manipulation of the telegraph in the provinces during the elections on the 12th has caused a great deal of remark.

The Welsh emigrants wrecked off the coast of Brazil in the Electric Spark all arrived down yesterday in safety.

Merchants and others must take care to pay their patents at the Government II use before the end of the month, as the time expires on 30th, after which there will be the customary fine.

The following interesting remarks about the sheep industry in a thriving state. The weather has been propitious. All is well generally when the wool producers are satisfied, and they are very much satisfied with the present state of things.

The banks maintain advanced rates of interest. The main from Brazil are important. Exchange after the sailing of the English steamer continued dull at 24, but subsequently two banks advanced their rates to 24 1/2 and the market rate at once rose to 25 1/2.

The liquidation—End of month 80,000 801; do 30,000 802; do 20,000 803. Sellers for on 1 July 801. For cash 801—buyers.

Exchange rates at 49 1/2. Latakia, France are down also. Unless the Provincial Bank draws, Exchange will probably drop below specie export rate.

The demand for bills is stiff. Discount brokers report that money is tighter. The National Bank to all bills discounted yesterday, marked to be paid in fall at maturity.

The gains of the Provincial Bank since the first of the year show well. Pats. m/o. January 185,721 68; February 111,595 73; March 94,809 68; April 176,174 59; May 20,121 92.

Respecting the false sovereign affairs, we heard to-day from a good source that the business looks serious enough, and that 500 were offered in Portugal at two pats. each. More still, that an agent has come out, or is coming out, to push the trade.

The Liverpool sales a week ago, heavy hides fetched 16/1. Light about 11/1. The sales were badly attended and went off with but little animation.

The London colonial sales are still going on and prices have rather improved since the opening. At the Liverpool auction there was fair competition, but the limits were too high to admit of much business.

The following business letter from Antwerp is important: "The deficiency in the slaughter of salted hides in your province has not had any effect upon our market."

The deficiency in the slaughter of salted hides in your province has not had any effect upon our market. There is nothing doing in floating cargoes of salted hides, and according to all appearance, we are likely to remain quiet still for four or six weeks, until, with a better choice of salted hides, tanners may begin to lay in their usual supplies.

Since the 7th instant there has been some little demand for wool, and the sales embrace about 100 bales of River Plate. Under the influence of continued favourable advices from the London sales our late auction rates are well maintained.

quarters however about the very high valuations put on oceanic lands by the courts. Some land parcels in Lincoln held in fee simple are also offered in the market, in fact property of every description is coming very fast into the market, and at fair prices leads always finds buyers.

In a few days some desirable property at the foot of Calle De las, almost facing the new Mutual Gas works, will be put up at auction and sold. The locality is admirably situated for operative lodging houses, and the price of sites down there is, when compared with other districts, extremely low.

We notice in the Montevideo papers a letter denying in toto the story of Benitez being put to the torture. The writer says the whole story from beginning to end is false, and that nothing of the kind was ever attempted.

The following is the latest circular from London—May 21st, 1874. W S OX and Co. Hides—We have no business to report since our last prices are still nominally 8d to 8 1/2d.
