NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE REASON WHY THE HAIR FALLS THE REASON WHY THE HAIR FALLS OFF.—Whonever the cuticle shrinks from disease, age, or other causes, it presses hard around the roots of the hair, thereby preventing the coloring substance and vital element from passing up from the roots. In order to frestall this deficulty, it becomes necessary to apply the Oriental Tonic every morning and night, combining with it a vigorous ure of the brush, the object being to renovate the vital-ty of the cuticles and soften the vesicles. This is seen attained, and the interrupted commanication between the bulbs and hair is renewed, resulting in a bril iant, silky, abundant, and enhanced in a bul iant, silky, abundant, and enhanced crop of hair. wit draw their children from the College.

The Siste a take this opportunity of reminding the charable Public, that they have also a number of Orphans, and other poor and friendless children, whom—as they are unwilling to cast them cut—trey have to provide for, in the midst of all this difficult and expensive time. How they have hilberto done so is often a marvel oven to thems live, unless when they regard it as the result of H s Benediction, "Who op neth His hand, and tilleth every living creature with blessings." But in the greatly increased difficulties of the present mom nt, with all the great difficulties of the present mom nt, with all the great difficulties of the present mom nt open difficulties of the present mom nt. ca not continue their present number of Or-phans, unless the charitable Public come promptly to their aid.

Hot and cold water is conveyed by pipes and tanks to every part of the factory and annexed buildings. Following the malt through its various processes, we come to the Calorifére machine and the huge copper boilers, where the brewing is done on the same principle as at Barclay and Perkins's, of London: the boilers have a capacity of 47 square metres, and turn out daily 22,200 gallons of beer, which > ert and family, surrounded by araucarias and other ornamental shrubs. A few days ago one of the Govern ment Ministers and Dr. Velez Sars field visited the brewery, and expressed their admiration that B. Ayres could boast such a first-crass establishment of the kind. It shews what well applied industry and enterprise can eftect, united with unfailing patience and attention. Mr. Bieckert came to Buenos Ayres only 14 years ago, began a hand-brewery with a kettle of 120 gallons in Calle Piedad, moved to Calle Salta in 1861, and using at first boiler of 600 gallons, which he loubled in 1866. Finding success constantly attend his efforts he began the present great factory in 1869, and now at the age of 38 years he is at the head of the most thriving basiness in B. Ayres. He still points out to the visitor the small copper kettle in which he brewed his first peck of malt in Galle Piedad.

Buenos Ayres has reason to be roud of men like Emile Bieckert, who shew how an industrious man can make his way to fortune and position, by sedulously attending to his business, bearing in mind the motto of the monks of old, "laborare est orare."

EDITOR'S TABLE. The rain yesterday morning was cludes a most elaborate and satisfactifully planted, though two months truly terrific. For a long time the ago the place was perfectly bare : you streets of Buenos Ayres have not had see pines, palms and other trees of such a washing. The ruction began much value, while to the right is a a little after 4 a. m. with a crashing spacious summer-house of imperial report right over the city, that awoke palms, with seats for 50 persons. The heaviest shower of all was between 9 and 10 o'clock, as business humanity was making its way into town; the day us he had to bore through tosca as cleared up about noon. Such heavy rain is glorious for the camp, and the prospects of sheepfarmers look decidedly bright for the coming season. We publish to-day a full description of one of the finest establishments in front is the roadstead of Buenos Ayres Buenos Ayres—Mr. Bieckert's brewery with its thousand vessels at anchor, in Calle Juncal. The grand Charity Bazaar to be opened at the Colon Theatre next week under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is keeping the fashion able world on the 'qui vive.' It is expected to be the most splendid affair of the kind ever seen in this city. There will be an exhibition of paintings from the best private galleries, rare singing birds and other attractions, amongst which will be the singing of Verdi's Mass by the Opera Company. No doubt the affair will prove a brilliant success.

There was nothing at all fresh from Montevideo yesterday owing to Tuesday being the great National day. Iudependence, To Douin, a review, flags, flowers, fireworks, shouts, routs, 'teas,' tertulias, and general alegria marked the anniversary. Not a word about the Liffey up to noon; the storm during the night was so violent that little hope of her being saved was entertained here, and the telegrams report her a total loss. Much sympathy is felt for Captain Dowse and the Royal Mail Company, so long and deservedly Alain public favor, and which will, no doubt, continue so in spite of this mishap, the first in these waters in 25 .

The following paragraph from our great Tory colleague and namesake the Loudon Standard, comparing London and New York, is very interesting, showing that there are still a few things in which our go-a-head American cousins have not yet outstripped us-"London has a population more than three times greater than New York, and it extends over a far larger area. There is a capital story (illustrating American humour some years ago), in which it is related that "a coach drove through the country so fast, and the milestones passed so quickly by, that the passengers thought they were in a churchyard. This coach, however, was beaten by the "Skipper", which "went so tarnation fast, that in sailing round Long Island she left her shadow three and a half miles behind her."

THE ALEXANDRA COLONY. Santa Fe, August 22nd, To the Editors of the STANDARD, Gentlemen: Having just received a copy of a letter printed in your issue of the 18th ultimo, signed by R. D. Balfour, Alex A rawhide haugs in an Jowa boy's andra Colony, my reply is, that it is bedroom, with the plaintive inscription out of his power to erase from the page of history my services to the company and settlement, even with a pen dipped in gall. It is not quite three years when with a handfull of men I landed in the then uncultivated plateau, the hunting grounds of the wild Indians, and unfurling the green flag of dear old Erin, enclosed my grant of land, grubbed out 1.000 old trees, put in the plough, formed and planted beautiful gardens, with numerous varieties of fruits, vegetables and flowers; and although within a few yards of my house, and on my land, the Indians cruelly murdered A. The crops are all now being sown. Last your's gave excellent returns, and the colonists for the most part are doing well. Of course, as in all colonies, there are some few discontented, and some do better than others: but this is unavoidable in such enterprises, and it is sufficient to know that the olony is thriving and people flocking to it. Mr. Lloyd, who is in no way connected with the colony, assures us that he was surprised at the improvoment he found in the place since his previ ous visit. The Californian colony, which is Land Auction Eugene C. Diaz & Co.

On September 8th (HOLIDAY) At 2 o'clock p. m.

The lands are at Carrisales, 4½ leagues 8.W. of Chivileoy, bounded on the N.W. by Juan Terrero, on the S.E. by Dolores Cranwell, on the S.W. by Angela Cranwell, and on the N.E. by chacras of Chivileoy.

The camp is admirably suited either for sheepfarming or agriculture: only 36 leagues from the city of B. Ayres.

The Western Railway to Bragado passes close by the land, the money being already voted by the Legislature, and Mr. Huergo having gone to London for the purpose.

Titles &c. at 36 Sa Martin, 1st patio.

NOTE.—If one party buy the land he neel only pay 2-thirds cash, leaving the rest on mortgage at low interest.
