tempered reform of our police force has proved a failure, and instead of going ahead we have to go back and commence again, and see if the Government cannot find out some other means of protecting the public and private property.

The Italian steamer Pampa, that you announced as having entered into the dock of Genoa for repairs, and would not arrive at your port till next month, the agents of the steamer here, Inecco Mazzini & Co., inform me that this steamer underwent her repairs in Marseilles, from which port she left on the 18th July for Genoa, and would leave for your port on the 31st of the same month.

Among the passengers by the Liffey I note Don Norberto Ballesteros, who has arrived to replace your present Spanish Minister, Don Alvarez Pezalla, who will shortly leave you for his native country.

many, as if beautiful districts, lovely rivers and splendid forests were responsible for the unnecessary severities on winding up of the invasion. There are inhabitants of Paris who refuse to visit a public building out of hate against the Communists who burned so many. Art is thus made as accountable as nature, and for what both are innocent. At Baden, the key to the borders of the Rhine, whose water like the fountain of Jouvence rejuvenates and embellishes, cannot even attract French ladies. Patriotism badly understood can lead to the commission of many follies, if not faults.

I note that you report the charter of the American ship Franklin, to load a cargo on the West Coast, but I hear from good authority that this is not true, and that the vessel is still looking for a freight.

on the extravagance of the weaker sex. A witty subscriber begs us to ask Mr. Gibils for an article on the subject, so that fair readers may peruse and preserve the "Sibylline leaves" that warn them of disasters if they don't read it milder in the millinery and "modiste" way. The idea is an excellent one, and we hope Mr. C. will comply; though it is always possible that the ladies may imitate King Tarquinus and refuse to read his prophecies, considering them a bore. We argue badly for the future of Buenos Ayres, however, if Mr. Gibils's well deserved warning passes unheeded.

cents.—and least in Scotland—9 cents. A barrel of flour costs most in Italy—22 pats. 5 cents.—and least in Tunis—9 pats. In Massachusetts a workman earns $5 35 per week, whilst in England he earns from $6 50 weekly up to $1 4 per diem. A blacksmith on wages in Massachusetts easily earns $164 pats. per week, whereas in England he only gets $7, in Germany $6, and in Italy only $4 80. Wages in the Liver Plate are much higher than in any of the countries referred to, but it must be borne in mind that living is also out of all proportion dearer. To lay by any money now in the Plate gentle and simple alike must economize and live as much as possible on air, with an occasional mutton bone, as beefsteaks are out of the question for the moment.

club, for the attendance of the ladies gracing the field, and for the contribution of creature comforts on match days. They would also thank their rival clubs for the hospitable manner in which they were met, and trust that the same hospitable rivalry may be continued during the opening season.

J. F. Jacobs, Hon. Sec. Lomas, August, 1874. ON 'CHANGE. August 27th, 1874. Ounces 400. Subs 1224. Pats 25. Nat. Bonds 76. Colónias 82.

The fall in Colónias continued to-day during business hours, and the market at one time stood so weak that the article in to-day's Tribuna stating that the bank is about to give 30 per cent on real estate was considered to be the most correct. The Tribuna's statement, however, is incorrect, and the Director does not contemplate making any alteration on the 25 cent rate.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from two French gentlemen named Breton, who recently discovered near Luján the skeleton of an unknown animal. Dr. Burmeister is of opinion that it is a horse, but the owners deride the notion, and intend to offer it to the British Museum if the National Government here refuse to purchase it. We do not profess to be naturalists, but what Messrs. Breton showed us of the skeleton does not appear to be horsey. They also showed us a beautiful stone arrow-head, for which they claim immense antiquity.

The mails and passengers of the ill-fated Lily came up yesterday by river steamer. Our friend 'dear Daws' was early in the field with the very latest papers—to 26th ult. The Illustrated of 25th is a very fine number; the principal engravings are superb, that entitled 'An Emuete in the Sixteenth Century' being alone worth the price of the number. Daws expects papers to 2d inst. to-day by the Galicia.

We find in the English papers by the Lily an amusing verdict of 'not guilty, but we strongly recommend the prisoner to mercy,' returned by Nottingham jurors in a case of obtaining money under false pretences. Even the judge roared copiously.

LOMAS CRICKET CLUB. A general meeting of the Club having been twice duly called for by the Secretary, to which in both instances so few of the members responded that a quorum could not be formed, the Committee for the season 1873-74 have, under the circumstances, to publish their report and to resign office.

While regretting the present little interest shown, the Committee trust that those who have really at heart the keeping up of the reputation of the Lomas Cricketers will come forward with some measures for forming a committee, and organizing the club for the coming season.

of public works in interest. The project is to construct the Oriental Home, that into one 8 per cent bond. We have no room for the whole scheme, but give the following synopsis—$200 will be paid for every $100 of the Empréstito Extraordinario, 1st and 2nd Series, also for Pacificación Loan, 1st and 2nd Series, and Resaca Tierras.
