

Forgery and coining are most prevalent between 30 and 36; and false witnesses between 35 and 40. While giving this tangible form to human passions, it is sad to learn that instruction is far from producing the energetic action so much to be desired; and what is frightful in these statistics of crime, the averages thus calculated apply with exactitude to every "civilized country."

Meanwhile we remind them of the good old adage, "Help yourself, and God will help you." Men out of work in town should seek the camp at once, where they will be certain of employment, food and good pay next month, when shearing will begin. The calling out of the National Guards will have swept all the native hands into the ranks, and estancieros will only be too glad to have men to shear their flocks. By seeking employment in the camp those now out of work in the city will keep the wolf from their own door, while greatly serving the country of their adoption at the same time, as any serious delay in cutting and exporting the wool harvest must lead to the most disastrous results for the whole republic.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The first news in town yesterday was from Europe, and was refreshing, as it turned men's minds from local affairs. The steamer Galileo entered the Mount early, and will probably be in port to-day. Mr. Carvalho was in Standard Court 'de bonne heure' with copious telegrams from London to the 24th ult. There is not much news, and what there is, is bad. In Paris half a dozen newspapers have been swept off the face of Creation—in milder language, suppressed; and fears of a revolutionary outbreak were general, and the troops on the move. The Danish question is just where it was, except that the Danish Minister at Berlin had demanded his passports, which looks ugly. Russia has ordered (or says she has) her Commander-in-Chief in India not to advance into Afghanistan, and of course Lord Derby will say no more on the subject till he gets a telegram some fine morning to say "She's there."

Advices from all parts of the camp represent nature clothed in "her brightest of green," pasturages succulent and abundant, and flocks and herds fattening fast. It is subject of remark that the city is much freer from crime and criminals at present than for a long time past. The state of siege has frightened all the bad characters, and no one is to be seen in the streets after dark but the patrols of the National Guard. Some few robberies have taken place, but the thieving and stabbing and general crime so rampant a couple of months ago have stopped. A gunmaker at Linoges has reached perfection in the breachloading way at last. The single act of cooking the gun makes it ready for firing, the cartridges being held in a barrel attached to the stock. From 20 to 30 shots a minute can be fired from the new gun. The Treasurer of the British Hospital begs thankfully to acknowledge receipt of the sum of seven thousand four hundred and fifty-four dollars currency, paid to him yesterday by the Theopians.

According to the latest advices from Iceland, via England, the people are said to meditate a millennium exodus en masse to the United States. Repeated failures of their scanty crops and recent volcanic disturbances have predisposed the whole population to abandon the island. They number about 60,000 souls. The ordinary route to the island is by way of Scotland. We give our usual report of the situation in another column. There is nothing particularly fresh. The first rumor going yesterday morning was, that the gunboat Uruguay and the Pavon had sailed from port to attack the Parana, and there was a rush to the Commercial rooms, all expecting that a glimpse of the naval battle might be had from that quarter. Up to press hour, however, there was no report of the fight having come off. The proclamation of the Italian Charge d'Affaires, Signor Lanciare, and the Presidents of all the Italian Societies to their countrymen in Buenos Ayres, is a very important document: it will be found in another column. It comes at the right moment, and breathes a true spirit of patriotism and loyalty to the country which so many Italians have made their home, to its and their own great advantage.

Notwithstanding the tightness of the times, our friend Mr. Kidd, the great Guina man, carries on his indispensable publication with full steam. Row or no row, the Guina must be bought and read. Like the STANDARD people can not do without it. Important changes in railway time-tables will take place on the 15th. Persons desirous of sending to Europe the very latest particulars of the situation will have a good opportunity to-day. Two steamers leave, the Pampa and Moreno; they are both fast boats, and will not in all probability be many days behind the Minho. The mails close at the Capitania at half-past one. Our Weekly edition contains everything of interest. We wish to inform our evening colleague, El Nacional, of something that affects its circulation, and of which the editors and proprietors may not be aware. The newsboys now ask $2 mpc. for a copy of the paper, and on Tuesday evening we saw three gentlemen successively ask for the paper and return it to the boy on being asked double price for it. More lost friends! Messrs. McGowan of Birkenhead writes to say that an old Irish woman has 3 times called on them to ask for information of her son, James Flinn, aged 22, who is in Buenos Ayres and never writes to her. The same old lady is very anxious to hear if her brother-in-law, Michael Donnelly, is still alive? Anybody sending information of the above to Mr. James McGowan, Almacén Ingles, Tuyu, or to this office, will enable us to forward the news to the distressed old lady in question. We feel pleasure in saluting Captain Buckle, H.M.S. Cracker, who has just arrived in port. The Cracker was at Maldonado when the news of political troubles reached Capt. Buckle, who at once came up. There are now two English war vessels in port—the Cracker and the Ready, both good ships and true. The 'funcion' at San Miguel Church on Tuesday was magnificent, and the sacred edifice so crowded that many had to go away without gaining admission. The Rule of Three—Live with your wife, mother and mother in law. A wag calls bigamy Utahising the female sex. What man must have his glass before he can do a day's work? A glazier.

Doctors never allow ducks on their premises, they make such personal remarks! There was literally not a particle of business doing yesterday. Lot's wife was not more completely shut up in that little satine accident than business has been by recent events, which have ossified it. It is said that some establishments have closed their doors, not from any embarrassment, but simply because they do not wish to open any fresh transactions till the present crisis is over. We opine they have done wisely. The only visible occupation of the commercial world now is picking up news, and retailing it to their friends, 'faced' a little, to suit the public palate, like London tea. Everyone is 'on the street' collecting intelligence, but most of it is, we cannot say unlit, but unsuitable for publication these ticklish times, being highly spiced rumour, and nothing more. The town was ringing yesterday with praise of the Italian Consul, who has in the noblest manner surrendered his 'papeleta' fees (said to amount to 40,000 hard dollars) for the relief of his countrymen thrown out of work by the political crisis. This generous action merits the highest eulogium, and will, we trust, meet with deserved acknowledgement from the Italian Government, as surely as it will secure for the Consul the eternal gratitude of his poor countrymen in B. Ayres. There are so many working men and laborers of all nationalities now thrown out of work in the city that measures for mitigating their distress may shortly become imperative.

Persons desirous of becoming members are requested to apply to the President, Secretary or any member of the Committee. P. SHORT, Hon. Sec. B. Ayres, September 26th 1874. A guinea maker at Linoges has reached perfection in the breachloading way at last. The single act of cooking the gun makes it ready for firing, the cartridges being held in a barrel attached to the stock. From 20 to 30 shots a minute can be fired from the new gun. ON 'CHANGE. Sept. 30, 1874. Ounces 400 Sova 1224 Pils 35 Xat. Bonds nominal. Cedula 753 The liquidation to-day reflects the highest credit on the Bolsa and the brokers: spite of the truly melan-choly state of affairs, they met their obligations in the most honorable manner. The vencimientos to-day reached $1 millions in Cedula's, and the sales to-day only reached 110,000, which proves that everything was closed beforehand.

What man must have his glass before he can do a day's work? A glazier. The Rule of Three—Live with your wife, mother and mother in law. A wag calls bigamy Utahising the female sex. What man must have his glass before he can do a day's work? A glazier.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes 'The sales to-day were', 'For cash', 'Oct. 31', 'Nov. 30'.

The liquidation nothing much done beyond closing the liquidation. At 5 o'clock everything was closed satisfactorily—no auction and no default. Exchange—The Italian bank did a large business to-day, chiefly in small drafts for Pampa passengers; steamers sail to-morrow crowded with passengers. French gold in good demand to-day at exchange offices all banks. It was announced this afternoon that Mr. Henry Moreno has been named the new Chief of Police. This morning about 10 o'clock the gunboat Uruguay with the Pavon and Anita started in chase of the Parana. Mr. J. de Walker, who has just returned from Europe and the States, was warmly welcomed by his friends to-day. The National Government has got advices from England of the sailing of the Argentine iron-clad on 3 weeks ago. The house of business of Lunus Hermanos was reopened to-day. To-day it is expected the battle between Arredondo and Roca comes off. Messrs. Quesada and Ballrich, the well-known city auctioneers, moved to-day into Standard Court. Mr. Carfagna had news from Europe to-day early. The Pernambuco cable is mended. The Minho only took from here $1,200,000 in gold, and $2,018 in silver bars, in all $2,838,000. The Galileo will be up in the morning; she will take the mail of the 9th. The Hys'ens will sail about the 26th of October for Antwerp, on return from Rosario. With the exception of Rosario none of the National Bank branches will be opened. In both the plazas, North and South, the most complete prostration. 106 barrels of tallow at 46, and a few dry cow hides at 16. One lot of matedero sheepskins at 29 rs. Everything at a stand still. The Nat. Government remitted per Mendoza the amount necessary to pay the March coupons and amortization of the Public Work Loan in London. This shows that spite of the present melancholy situation the punctual service of the National Debt is religiously attended to, and our excellent Minister of Hacienda is the right man in the right place.
