THE REASON WHY THE HAIR FALLS OFF.—Whenever the cuticle shrinks from disease, age, or other causes, it presses hard around the roots of the hair, thereby preventing the coloring substance and vital element from passing up from the roots. In order to forestall this difficulty, it becomes necessary to apply the Oriental Tonic every morning and night, combining with it a vigorous use of the brush, the object being to renovate the vitality of the cuticles and soften the vesicles. This is soon attained, and the interrupted communication between the bulbs and hair is renewed, resulting in a brilliant, silky, abundant, and enhanced crop of hair. cj—nov 22

"LA FORTALESA."

This most charming Country Reidence stands alone in its glory. It is conveniently retired from the extravagantly fashionable haunts of the Flores 'haut-ton,' whilst by no means lonely or out of the way.

For a weary banker, worn-out editor, or dignified broker, it is just the place to enjoy life quietly.

The House is comfortable, the Grounds delightful, and the situation salubrious.

A good, desirable tenant the owner would treat on easy terms. None others need apply.

PROTECTION OF ANIMALS.

"Dick Martin is much wanted in Buenos Ayres." This is the first impression that strikes an Englishman on arriving here. Cruelty to animals is characteristic of the River Plate, and the barbarous ill-treatment of horses in the streets of our polished and enlightened capital is nothing short of a national disgrace.

A little energy on the part of the police would put a stop to the evil. As Buenos Ayres has already abolished bull-fighting, we have a right to expect from the good sense of the city magistrates the prohibition of a still more degrading and demoralising spectacle, such as brutal cartmen beating an over-laden horse that has fallen under the shafts, or deliberately knocking out the poor animal's eye, or working a horse whose back is so raw as to excite horror among beholders.

Yesterday's Tribuna gives the case of a man condemned in the London Police Court to three months imprisonment for burning a cat alive in a furnace. We have also before us the case of a young woman, Emma Jux, sentenced to one month's hard labor for punching out a cat's eye.

These cases show indeed that there is brutality in England as elsewhere, but also that the law protects animals by punishing cases of wanton cruelty. Here in Buenos Ayres horses and other useful animals are wholly unprotected, and hence the growing evil of which we complain. Some time since a society was formed in Rosario for the prevention of cruelty to animals, but it is essential that the authorities should co-operate in efforts of this kind. Let every policeman be instructed, if not to arrest, at least to remonstrate with any driver ill-treating his horses; and a fine to be levied for every horse put to work with a sore back, the half of such fine to go to the policeman. In six months cruelty to animals would be virtually abolished, and no longer form a feature of life and manners in Buenos Ayres. The present Chief of Police has an opportunity of connecting his name with a valuable reform. In the British House of Commons the names of many great statesmen in the past are less affectionately remembered than that of the eccentric Irishman, Richard Martin, who introduced the law preventing cruelty to animals.

Nothing can be more erroneous than to suppose the cruelty of the lower classes of gauchos and waggoners proceeds from natural depravity. We are all what education makes us, and if the law prohibits gross ill-treatment of animals the cart-drivers and coachmen will begin to have more respect for their cattle, and to treat them better. In New York and some other cities this feeling is so much encouraged that tramway drivers who use no whips are paid a dollar a week extra.

But the law should extend its protection also to the more useful species of animals even in the Pampas. For example in England, France and other countries small birds are protected under severe penalties, as they are found most useful in preventing insects and other small vermin destructive to gardens and field crops. But if you walk through the markets in our city you will see hung up dozens and scores of little birds that ought to be as sacred as Robin Redbreasts, linnets, wrens, and the like; in a few years the quintas and hedgerows around B. Ayres will be depopulated by the so-called "sportsmen," who shoot down every feathered thing they see, regardless of the destruction which in any other country would be punished by the Police. Among the most beneficial edicts of the Emperor Napoleon was the law protecting birds, but it was not passed until the crops shewed a notable decline in France from the increase of noxious insects.

Furthermore game should be protected in the breeding season, and a police notice regularly posted at each Juzgado, at the beginning and close of the season. At present duck-shooting here, as Punch says of Landlord-shooting in Ireland, begins on the 1st of January and ends on the 31st of December. If it were not for the great abundance of this kind of game they would be almost exterminated; and the same may be said of partridge.

The game laws in England do not protect every kind of what we might call 'game.' Thus we see that 27 millions of rabbits were killed last year in England. In like manner we might except 'bizchachos' in this country, and allow them to be killed all the year round, since their skins, if exported, would form an item of trade.

We must, meantime, introduce some prompt and effective measure to prevent the wholesale slaughter of ostriches. The Custom-house returns show that the export of ostrich-feathers last year was twenty times what it amounted to in 1870. No wonder that this useful animal has almost disappeared from our Pampas, as it has been already exterminated in Banda Oriental. The late General Urquiza made it a misdemeanor to 'bolear' ostriches, and by this means prevented the destruction of the species in his Province. At present in B. Oriental the Rural Association is vainly endeavoring to revive the breed of ostriches, which has all but disappeared.

It may be too much to expect that motives of mere humanity will have any effect in awakening the authorities of Buenos Ayres to the utility of protecting animals. Many people also will say——Would it not be better to punish the murderers of the Southam family? What use in trying to protect horses and ostriches when we hear of a poor man shot at his dinner in a hotel, and the matter forgotten.

That the laws are badly administered is patent to everybody, and any efforts for reform have during the last 20 years proved hopeless. But we must not be discouraged for this reason from advocating such reforms as daily suggest themselves, and a law of Protection to Animals is one that recommends itself to general attention. Perhaps if a check of this kind were put to acts of cruelty we should have fewer cases of murder and outrage to record.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

London, Oct. 22nd.

Our latest telegram from Buenos Ayres tells us that:—'The insurgents had been defeated by Rivas and that Placa was made prisoner.' The dispatch is dated Montevideo 18th inst. You can imagine our state of enlightenment; meantime all River Plate business is at a stand still. River Plate securities nevertheless maintain themselves in a very fluctuating and unsettled market caused by speculation, failures on the Stock Exchange, at Liverpool and in the United States. That the bank has not raised the rate of discount to-day will cause some surprise, as an upward movement was generally expected.

The World of yesterday contains the following announcement:—

> "OUR CITY ARTICLES.
> "Owing to the flood of correspondence with which we have been inundated during the past week, we think it right to state the Mr. Labouchere neither is nor will be the author of every article on City matters which either has been or will be published in these columns. Mr. Labouchere is not a professional journalist, and was therefore probably not aware that in admitting the authorship of a certain article he violated one of the principal cannons of press etiquette, and called forth innumerable questions, suggestions, proposals, &c. which we have neither time nor the inclination to discuss. If there is any subject on which we believe Mr. Labouchere can be usefully employed, we shall place the papers connected with it in his hands. But we shall also frequently avail ourselves of the services of other contributors in protecting the public from the nefarious designs of City sharks. It will be recollected that in our Prospectus we stated: 'The World will vastly surprise those who are wont to look upon the city in its conventional aspect.' The events of the last week will show that our words were not lightly written.
> Editor, "World."

It then goes on to prescribe for the prevention of 'Rigs,' and to explain that it had not been actuated by ill-feeling in calling attention to the mode in which Mr. McEwen and Mr. Abbott have conducted their business. It believes that having discovered that the press of the country could not be gagged they will have the common sense to give up practices which alone were possible so long as they were veiled from public observation.

The plain speaking and most useful and much wanted Weekly then deplores the composition of our House of Commons, which is filled with—

"Brewers and bankers men of hideous omen,
"Enormous fellows with immense abdomen,
"Fleshy directors with their diamond rings:
"Such is the sum of our six hundred kings."

More than one-third of the House, it says, consists of merchants, traders, bankers, soapboilers and contractors, and the whole atmosphere of the legislature is oppressive with the smell of 'shop,' and every broad political idea is sacrificed to the vulgar local interests. The World is reviewing a memoir of the present Lord Lytton affixed to the recently published speeches of his father, and Lord Lytton repeats the same notions.

Mr. Matheson, the great China merchant, one of the wealthiest men in the city has, with some other serious minded gentlemen, purchased the old Albion chapel at the corner of London Wall for prayer meetings for city men every day in the week, Sundays excepted. It is crowded daily, and the public is much agitated by the news of the early arrival of the Scoto-American revivalists, Messrs. Sankie and Moodie. Those gentlemen—I do not know if they are reverend gentlemen—have been creating quite a furore in Scotland and Ireland, after a distinguished success in their native country, the United States. They are, I understand, of no particular Christian denomination, but are anxious only for the general awakening of souls.

They have been invited to come to London—not before they are wanted—by Mr. Matheson and others. Mr. Matheson, in parenthesis, made an immense fortune, or the beginning of it, by selling opium to the heathen Hindus.

Messrs. Sankie and Moodie have replied that they cannot venture to come to London without three months' preparation, and I suppose a fixed sum for expenses. At Dublin on a late occasion after a most successful meeting in which the minds of the hearers were thoroughly aroused to their desperate condition, Messrs. Sankie and Moodie requested all who were not duly moved, or who had any doubts as to the state of their souls, to wait after the meeting for private and individual communing with one of those gentlemen. About 500 souls remained, so that as individual conference was out of the question they were taken in bulk.

The "gospel tent" of Ned Wright, the converted thief, at the end of Southampton-street, Camberwell, was carried away yesterday in the terrible gale which visited nearly every part of Great Britain, and caused much destruction. Mr. Wright, whom I have often had the pleasure of standing under for five minutes as I passed his tent, is to have an iron chapel built for him on the same spot. Wright has a good presence and voice, and possesses exactly the kind of illogical logic which is so taking with the common people in England.

Wright does a vast deal of good. I honor him. But surely people who pretend to education should have nobler aspirations, more permanent veneration in their minds, than to need the sensational moving which hot crowds communicate like a moral infection through the instrumentality of itinerant preachers.

The report of the Royal Mail Steamship Company mentions the purchase of the steamers Minto and Mondego. The latter leaves for the River Plate on the 27th. At the end of this year the Government subsidy to the company will be £184.000, instead of £240,000. The loss of the Liffey is placed at £28,000, reducing the present dividend. By distributing the loss over two and a half years, the company feels safe in paying 12s. 6d. per share out of insurance account.

The 'Conspiracy case,' in which Joseph Aspinall and others are concerned, is again postponed until the 30th inst.

THE SITUATION.

FIFTY-NINTH DAY.

Colonel Julio Campos writes from Tapalquen, Monday 16th, as follows—"I arrived to-day at noon, and found the enemy had abandoned the place at daybreak, marching with precipitation towards La Blanca. I have to halt here till Col. Lagos comes up; he is a few leagues of, and if he arrive to-day I shall set off by daybreak in pursuit. The enemy is so demoralized as to leave waggons, sick and even arms behind. I have just collected 300 carbines and firelocks abandoned by him on the bank of the Arroyo."

The same commander writes from Olabarria, Wednesday 18th, to Minister Alsina as follows—"I will do my best to maintain constant communication with Your Excellency at Las Flores. Yesterday we were marching all day and all night. I have just saddled the horses (5.30 p.m.) to continue my march south after Mitre. The rest of Catriel's Indians passed over to me, after a slight skirmish among themselves. Catriel and 8 followers escaped, and are pursued by their own people, who are most willing to serve the Government against the enemy, and I am getting them into the same discipline as the rest of my command.

"Postscript. A courier has arrived this moment from Colonel Lagos announcing the capture of Catriel by the Indians who had gone in pursuit of him, and who were about to lance him when Lagos arrived in time to save him. I had sent Lagos after him, because he put to death one of my messengers. When the prisoners arrive I shall forward them to B. Ayres. We have found 2 cannons in good condition abandoned by the enemy."

Minister Alsini encloses another note from Julio Campos on the occupation of Olabarria:—

"After a forced march of 16 leagues, hoping to overtake the enemy here, I arrived to-day (Wednesday) at daybreak, but found the enemy had gone a few hours before, being well supplied with fresh horses. As soon as my division is a little rested I start for San Jacinto in pursuit. As my vanguard almost reached the enemy's rear it gave an opportunity for Juan Jose Catriel, brother of the Cacique (Cipriano Cabriel) to pass over to me with 200 Indians, and I expect 400 more before nightfall. They say they never had the slightest wish to fight against the Government, but were forced by Rivas and Cabriel.

"I have sent on to-day to Azul the battalions of Majors Donovan and Rodriguez, the artillery of Lagos and a squadron of cavalry, the whole under the command of Donovan, to garrison Azul and lighten my force, as I consider 1,000 men now quite enough to finish up the disorganized forces of Gen. Mitre."

The Tribuna says that although the Concordia papers denied the rumour of the garrison firing on a Brazilian boat with an Imperial flag, on Oct. 20th, there seems to have been some truth in it, as the Jornal do Commercio says the Brazilian Cabinet has taken up the matter and published the documents.

Concepcion papers of Wednesday, 18th, say that Entre Rios has already given 2,000 men towards the Army of Reserve at Rosario, and 1,000 more will shortly be ready from Concepcion and Corcordia. Paysandu paperr say that Gen. Lopez Jordan is expected there. The Tribuna contradicts the rumour that he is to be Governor of Entre Rios.

Fray Bentos papers complain that an Oriental citizen named Oyanguren, resident of Gualeguaychu, has been impressed as a soldier in a line regiment by the Argentine authorities. The Oriental Consul, Mr. Spangemberg, is said to have declined to see him or assist him.

The Municipality of Buenos Ayres has ceded the San Roque Lazzaretto to the Provincial Government for a military hospital, under the direction of Surgeon Major Wilde, assisted by Doctors Corbalan, Vega, Araujo, Coventon, Garaño, and ten medical students.

Judge Saravia telegraphs from Jujuy, Friday, 20th, that telegraphic communication with Buenos Ayres is restored, and the Provinces of Jujuy and Salta most ready to obey any orders of the National Government.

Colonel Gonsalez, Gefe at Concordia, telegraphs that he has a regiment ready to join the Reserve Army at Rosario.

The war steamers Gonzalo, Brown and Buenos Ayres returned to port on Friday, from Montevideo.

The Gefe of La Paz (Entre Rios) telegraphs that the Judge of Esquina routed a band of rebels near that town, and re-opened communication with La Paz.

The war steamer Arturo arrived on Friday from Martin Garcia.

The Provincial Government is going to hand over immediately two millions currency to pay the over-due salaries of Municipal employees.

Colonel Mansillla was treated to a serenade in Cordoba. He announces (Friday) the arrival of the Ischilin contingent, under Major Diaz, and another under Major Sosa. The merchants of Cordoba supply the uniforms. Governor Rodriguez is very active. The National Guards drill every day in the Plaza. Colonel Ayala returns to Rosario, leaving Mansilla in charge.

The Nacional says Lopez Jordan is at Paysandù, and has no idea to invade Entre Rios. The Gualeguay battalion is about to embark for Rosario.

Crowds assembled yesterday to observe Coliqueo's Indians who went to have a Pow-wow at the National Government House.

On and after Tuesday, 24th instant, rations will be given out at the Women's Hospital, by Government, to distressed families of National Guards.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The prominent question yesterday was, 'will the state of siege be prolonged by Government?' The 60 days for which it was declared expire today. The news from the South yesterday was important, and not a few think that next week's events may be still more so.

The tremendous rain during the small hours yesterday morning was a welcome relief from the intense, sticky heat that prevailed on Thursday and Friday. Some of the low lying houses and cellars near the beach were pretty well inundated, and the usual number of kerosene cans, old boots, battered hats, etc., were borne along the swollen Terceros to the deep bosom of the ocean. Collecting yesterday was hard work for the clerks of commercial houses, yet, in spite of the rain and mud, the improved condition of the money market told more or less favourably on their receipts

The new Hotel de Immigrantes in Plaza Retiro is worth a visit. Under Mr. Wilcken's intelligent direction the place has been transformed into a bright, clean, airy lodging, with every facility for attending to the wants and even comforts of the newly arrived emigrant, who can sniff the healthy breeze from the river, and enjoy the refreshing verdure of the Plaza Retiro. We saw several new arrivals on Friday evening enjoying a post prandial pipe in the Plaza while the citizen soldiers were at drill. The Hotel is an immense improvement on the old quarters in Calle Corrientes.

Learned Cordoba seems determined to make up for any little reflections that may have been cast on her for electing on a recent occasion 'to fight another day.' The good city is now alive from morn till dewy eve with the 'pride, pomp and circumstance of glorious war.' Colonel Mansilla has infused the utmost warlike ardour into the Guards. Nevertheless the Progreso gives utterance to a general complaint among them that there is too much drill. Three times a day are the warriors of Cordoba on parade, beginning at half-past 4 a.m. This extremely matutinal parade is generally very scantily attended, and our colleague says that 'muchisimos jovenes de buena sociedad,' amongst them the Secretaries of both Chambers, were put under arrest for non attendance. The Cordobese are evidently not supporters of the 'early to rise' theory, though we believe 'early to bed' is the rule in the learned city. Here in Buenos Ayres the Guards go to drill quite as early as their Cordoba companions in arms, yet they do not complain.

In its issue of yesterday the Tribuna refuses to believe that the late famous linguist, Abbe Richter, who died last month at Munich, spoke eighty languages. There is no ground for doubting it. Cardinal Mezzofanti, whose nearest compeer the late Abbe was, spoke no fewer than 95 different tongues; indeed it was said that his Eminence could not remember how many different languages he was master of. Being asked the question once by a distinguished visitor the Cardinal sent him a few days afterwards the Lord's Prayer written in over 90 different tongues. He visited Dublin on one occasion and greeted the Dean in Irish, expressing his astonishment that the venerable dignitary did not understand the language of his own country. A most extraordinary fact in connection with this eminent churchman's knowledge as a linguist was, that he was thirty years of age before he knew any tongues but his native Italian, and Latin. Being then in attendance on the wounded soldiers of Napoleon the Great in the hospital of Bologna, Mezzotanti, then only Monsignor, set himself to learn divers languages, so that he might hear the confessions of the soldiers of the 'Grande Armee,' who were from every nation of Europe, if not the world. From this devotion to his duty as a priest sprung the wonderful knowledge that entitled the Cardinal to be styled the greatest linguist that has ever lived. The late Cardinal Wiseman was no unworthy rival of his great contemporary, speaking 30 languages. His Imperial Majesty Francis Joseph of Austria speaks 26, and then we have the famous North American blacksmith, editor and philanthropist, Eliku Burritt who speaks 18. Another linguistic prodigy was our distinguished countryman Sir William Rowan Hamilton, born in Dublin in 1805. At 4 years of age he had made considerable progress in Hebrew, at 6 he had mastered the elements of Greek and Latin, and at 13 years old he knew a language for every year of his young life!! At 14 years of age he addressed a letter in Persian to the Shah's Ambassador in London, Mirza Abou Hassan Khan. He was knighted by Lord Normany. Other great linguists we might mention, had we space at command. Our colleague will see, however, that the late distinguished Abbe Richter only ran second to Cardinal Mezzofanti as a linguist, and that his knowing 80 languages is not 'grilla.'

We received some newspapers from the far Interior yesterday, but beyond old hash from this city and unimportant local events they contain nothing, though the present crisis offers every chance to enterprising editors to send down fresh news to B. Ayres.

The following amusing story as to how a bagman recently 'put his foot in it' was handed to us yesterday by a British friend. "A traveller chanced to get into the same railway carriage in which the Dukes of Argyle and Northumberland were travelling. The three chatted familiarly until the train stopped at Alnwick Junction, where the Duke of Northumberland got out, and was met by a train of flunkeys and servants. 'That must be a great swell,' said the 'commercial' to his remaining companion. 'Yes,' responded the Duke of Argyle, 'he is the Duke of Northumberland.' 'Bless my soul!' exclaimed the 'commercial.' 'And to think that he should have been so condescending to two little snobs like us!'"

A German gentleman with the clanging name of Gong has got into trouble at Chanar, for publishing a letter in the Progreso of Cordoba in which he 'belled the cat' about some proceedings of the local Gefe Politico. That official had Mr. Gong 'up' instanter before the Judge, Jury and Attorney-General of Chanar, all three officials being represented in his own august person. Of course Gong was a 'gone coon,' but the sentence is not published. We take these particulars from our colleague El Progreso.

The Rhone, a splendid steamer, sails for Europe to-morrow. Mail bag closes at the Capitania at half past 11 sharp.

The police have been ordered to back up vigorously the Municipal Analysts in their praiseworthy endeavours to detect and punish adulterating grocers, willow leaf tea dealers, logwood Port wine merchants, etc., etc. Some of the parties recently caught selling destructive compounds as genuine comestibles were so disgusted at being trapped, and their names and addresses published, that they refused to pay the fine till the police persuaded them. In France all adulterators are forced to publish the sentence of the Tribunal on them in the morning papers, and to pay for this 'trade advertizement.' Why not adopt the same admirable system here?

We hear from Dublin that a meeting of the O'Connell Committee has been held to consider the best mode of celebrating the anniversary of the centenary of O'Connell in August next. A draft address to Irishmen in all parts of the world was read, calling on them to aid in the celebration by sending deputations to Dublin, and a programme, based on the proceedings in connection with the Burns Centenary, was received. It is proposed to have a great procession through the city, to be followed in the evening by a banquet, and the next day by an ode and a musical festival promenade in the Winter Garden Palace, and excursions from all parts of the country. It is also proposed to strike a medal in honour of the occasion.

The following is the very latest about the Comet. We may mention that it is not expected back for several millions of years, and it is highly improbable any of our subscribers will ever see it again—

Like the festive sheep,
Of little Bopeep,
So lost that she couldn't find it,
The Comet's gone back
On its wandering track,
And taken its tail behind it.

If any of our readers should hear of a purse with the initials F. S. in silver, lost by an English lady, they are requested to send it to this office. In case the finder be a poor person he or she may keep the money that was in it, some 300$ m/c, but the purse is valuable to the owner as a present from a dear friend.

Now and then the Buenos Ayres papers have to reproach their Montevidean colleagues with being rather dry, and sparing of news. 'Tit for Tat is very good chat' says a vulgar proverb, and it is now the turn of our friends over the water to have a 'tu quoque' slap at us. Remarking on the decree suppressing all bulletins and war news except those authorized by the Minister of the Interior, the Siglo says that the B. A. papers are now the most ideftable cold hash, with no more substance in them than an old brick. This is, unfortunately, the fact, but circumstances alter cases. For our part we always read our Mount colleagues with great pleasure.

We perceive that the Provincial Minister of Finance, in view of the hardupishness of the times, has allowed the British Hospital a further term of six months for the payment of the Contribucion Directa due by that establishment.

Mr. Dalquist, of the National Engineers Bureau, has resigned his post, and will be replaced 'pro tem' by Mr. Raymond Montenal.

There was a rumour current late on Friday evening and repeated by some people yesterday that Marshal Bazaine has not stopped at Lisbon but is coming out straight to the River Plate. Unless to show himself we cannot surmise what the deuce bring him out here.

One of the most atrocious puns ever made, was perpetrated by a very harmless sort of person. When Mr. Soberleigh read that a father in the West had chopped his only son in two, he innocently remarked that he didn't think they ought to arrest a man for simply 'parting his heir in the middle.'

An old Botany Bay anecdote tells us of a convert who got on so well at the Antipodes that he rose to the magistracy; and making some harsh reflections on a person brought before him whom he fined five shillings, the delinquent retorted. 'There's the money. I remember the time in England when I should have liked much less to meet you with five shillings in my pocket."

By the Rio papers we learn that Sir John and Lady Hawkshaw have left Rio for Europe. Lady Hawkshaw accompanied her husband on all his surveying expeditions, and is nearly as good an engineer as himself. Sir John was elected an honorary member of the Polytechnic Institute at Rio, and before his departure presented the treasurer with a cheque for £300, to be invested, and the interest applied in giving gold medals from time to time as prizes for the best paper by a student on any engineering subject. The Dutch Brazilian Bank of Rio has won its suit with the English Bank for the recovery of 126 contos of reis: the commercial community approves warmly of the sentence. The Anglo-Brazilian Times publishes an interesting note from Admiral Craufurd, R.N, on the advantages of the Province of Parana as a field for European emigration. The Admiral passed some time in the Province not long ago.

The widow of Captain Peters, so well known in the River Plate and West Coast, has opened a school for Young Ladies at Arbroath, Scotland.

Paysandu is to have gas. Mr. Lyndsay is the man who has engaged to do the trick.

We hear that a new Society has recently been started in this city under the title of "Sociedad Britanica de Paseos a Europa," its object being to provide funds to its members, by means of periodical drawings, to meet the expenses of a pleasure trip to Europe. This is a good idea, and we are happy to hear that although the society is but a few days in existence, there are already nearly one hundred members, which is in itself sufficient to show that the Sociedad Britanica is destined to become one of the most flourishing societies we have. The monthly subscription is only $25 m/c, and although present times are hard, such an insignificant sum as a patacon monthly for the chance of a free trip home and back with all expenses paid is very well worth the money. We are requested to state that any person wishing to become a member can obtain all information respecting the society, its rules, &c. on application to 109 Piedad, altos.

The stock market opened this morning buoyant, and Cedulas under the impress of more favorable political news look better than yesterday.

There was quite a hubbub in the market today owing to parties who have bills in the National Bank receiving circulars from the bank informing them that their bills were in the hands of the Government, and must be paid in full at maturity. This led to some parties interviewing the Minister, and it was said on 'Change that H. E. stated that as the bills go into the Provincial Bank it was probable those houses who found it difficult to pay in full would be able to renew on paying 20 per cent.; the business was the absorbing topic on 'Change to-day.

Owing to the weather the Belgian mail-steamer Rhone will not be able to sail to-morrow.

The R.M.S. Mondego entered Montevideo today, and her mails come up to-night.

Telegrams from Rio announce that the American Telegraph Agency has named Mr. G. P. R Gepp, sole representative in the Plate; no better or more capable man could be named to the post, and we congratulate Mr. Gomez Oliveira on getting so energetic and popular an agent.

Perhaps the most important business news to-day was the great Entre Riano wool sale effected by Mr. Ch. de Mot as broker; the wool is from the estancia del Potrero in Entre Rios, formerly belonging to the late General Urquiza, now to Messrs. Lanus and Lezica; Messrs. A. Benitez and Co. of this market, are the sellers, and Messrs. A Corten and Co. buyers; the lot is 20,000 ar. and the price 5 patacones on board, about the highest yet paid, the wool is bought for shipment to several Belgian and Frech manufacturers.

The stock sales were—

Exchange rules, upward drawers at 50d. and bills offered freely at this rate; bills passed at 50d. francs also most freely offered, bills passed at 5,29 to 31; the exchange market looks decidedly upward.

Some brokers report money tight to-day, the payments in the barraquero's room about 15 millions currency. collections as usual complained of.

Letters from Rio give Dr. Octaviano returned from Europe, and probable that he will be named on special mission to Plate.

Mr. Passman was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his return from San Nicolas, he reports all the wool up there sold.

The sale of a cargo of bone ash in the rivers 18 pats. free on board reported.

Also the sale of 3,000 salted hides by Berisso at reserved rates. A cargo offering, but the rub is the port of Tuyu is closed; this stops everything down there.

The telegraph from Montevideo gives the following:

French steamer Henri IV, Havre.
Joaquina, Matanzas.
Thomas, Cardiff.

To-day we conclude the ninth week of the war. Two days more and the period designated by Congress for state of siege expires. The week we close has been the most eventful since the revolution began. No one could on last Monday morning have supposed that the week would be so pregnant with events. Irrespective, however of powder and shot, war and revolution, the week has been an active busy one and closes with a financial let up that must soon tell on things in general. There is no longer any reserve respecting the National Bank arrangement with the National Government; printed circulars have been sent round to the drawers of bills acquainting them where their bills are held, and whatever may have been the balance due by the bank to the Government on the 16th inst. there can be no doubt that on the 30th inst. it will be nil, the whole amount of the Government deposit being paid off, and, we are free to say, the position of the National Bank vastly improved. T'is well also to bear in mind that these 4 million pats. Government deposits have gone into this market, how much more we shall have to add to this item it is hard to say, but if owing to the revolution the Government is poorer, most assuredly the market is richer; another very important feature is the accumulation of deposits in the banks as evidenced by the circular sent round during the week announcing 2 per cent. the highest interest to be allowed on call deposits over 20,000 pats. Exchange since Monday has hardened at 50d., and gold is now coming up from Montevideo faster than six months ago it went down; again we have the Provincial Bank discounting eight millions one day and double that sum on the following board day. Wools coming in fast, fine lots fetching 100$ currency per arroba and regular lots at 80. Saladeristas entering the Corrales for cattle and the Bolsa for hide buyers. The Dolores railway bringing in wool for the first time from Dolores, and all our trains running regularly. Trains in with wool, and out with comestibles; bullock-carts crowding our plazas, and pipes of wine, tercios of yerba, tea boxes, sugar barrels etc. covering the very ground, where the Santa Fe cavalry regiment bivouacked with their horses. Are we not justified in presence of all these facts, to consider that the clouds are at last breaking, and possibly before old Time strikes the irrevocable gong on 1874 Mitristas, Alsinistas and Avellanedistas will be all friends again, wiser and better men after the sharp experience of the past. In this hurried glance at the week's improvement we have omitted one event which perhaps properly weighed is superior to everything else, namely, that spite of all our troubles and drawbacks 1500 new hands have landed on our shores since Monday; accustomed as we are to see steamers coming in crowded from stem to stern with emigrants, we overlook the importance to the country of this ceaseless life current. We can import nothing of higher value in a young and unpeopled country than the strong brawny laborer's hands; had we got during the week by the Clementina, Rio Grand, Iberia and other steamers 1½ millions patacones in gold what a rumpus would there not have been? yet better for the country, the market and trade is the arrival of 1500 fresh consumers and producers. So long as this priceless import trade lasts this country must advance.

The mails from Montevideo this morning brought up a circular from a new Telegraph Agency, called the Anglo American Telegram Agency, started with the following agencies—

Rio de Janeyro R. Stuart. 45 Rua Direita.
London R. Stuart. 30 Throgmorton St.
Liverpool R. Stuart. 11 Manchester Buildings.
New York Geo Stoker. 113 Pearl Street.
New Orleans Geo Stoker. 21 Union Street.

The following are the rates of this new concern:—

Reduced rates per cable from Rio Janeyro—

To Great Britain. For names and addresses when recorded in our books $8.00, and $2.20 per word of telegram.

To New York. For names and addresses when recorded in our books $9.50, and $3.20 per word of telegram.

We believe this agency has no office in the River Plate.

B. Ayres, Nov. 18 de 1874.

It was rumoured on 'Change to-day that the first salted hide contract for the new faena has been concluded with Mr. Luro, terms reserved.

Letters from Montevideo reports the arrival of Dr. Carril down there, and it is supposed on a special mission to the Government; the papers published a long story about the trip of the Rio Uruguay, and the row with the Captain about changing the flags; the steamer went down with special despatches to the squadron.

News from New York announces a sudden and great fall there in flour, prices have fallen to the level of 1862.

In our advertizement column will be found notices of two foreclosure sales by the Mortgage Bank; the notice is important in so much that no valuation is put on the property, and it will be sold for whatever it will fetch without the slightest reserve; the Barton property consists chiefly of building sites in the more remote streets, and this sale will establish the value of a species of property which some 2 years ago was considered the most speculative. This same property was put up months ago for sale by the Bank with the Bank Mortgage as the valuation, there was no bid; now however, there is no fixed price set on the property and it must go for whatever it will fetch. The auctions in question come off on 6 and 8 Dec.; they may be regarded as the beginning of the land liquidation.

With very much pleasure we accede to a request received from London to correct the statement of our London correspondent respecting the firm of Iglesias & Co. Our correspondent gave the debts £400,000, and assets £10,000 stg. which is incorrect; the liabilities of the house only reached £176,000 and assets £32,000 stg., and the firm in question has arranged with its creditors by paying 3s 4d in the pound and assigning to them all the interest of the firm of J. R. Iglesias & Co. in the house of Messrs. Jose Firmat & Co. of Buenos Ayres. This is certainly very different to what our London correspondent sent us and which we published.

We have received orders from many parts for the General Telegraph Code; on applying to Mr. Bowyer, the book seller advertizing some, he informs us that he must first send to London for the book, but that he is making up his list, and will send by the mail the orders to England for this most useful book.

The rain this morning of course checked the wool men, yet our North market man reports several important transactions in wool this morning at the Station and on reserved terms; the arrivals keep up, and on Monday buyers may look forward for the largest assortment of wools at the Plazas since the season opened. Hay comes in fast and looks as if to suffer a further fall, the season having proved splendid for chacreros. Dry hides are also down, and the buyers state that even at present prices it is impossible to buy for the New York market.

We have received from a subscriber a note requesting us to suggest the following gentlemen as new Directors for the National Bank at the next meeting:

Don Leonardo Pereira
" Jose Drysdale
" Marco Avel'aneda
" Adolfo Mantels
" Juan Cobo
" Lino Palacio.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND CO

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few merchants who fail to keept one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other no ties.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangall from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1862.

Max Havelaar

BY MULTATULI.

It is difficult to say whether Max Havelaar is more interesting as a novel or powerful as a political pamphlet. From either point of view it is of rare and first rate excellence, In its lifes like actuality it constantly recalls Defoe, whilst in its tender and original humor it suggests Sterne in his best moods.—"Westminister Review," April, 1868,

* * * That is the whole story. A book which combines more humor, knowledge of character, high thought, deep pathos, and vigorous political intelligence than any we have read for a long time.—"Evening Star," Feb. 14, 1868.

The story is remarkably clever, a rollicking, eccentric, grotesque and satirical humor overflowing on every page. It is unlike any other book that we have read * * * Some of the episodes, that of Saujah, for instance, are manifest creations of an imaginative genius of no ordinary kind.—"British Quarterly Review," April, 1868.

It is a novel in form, but in reality a political pamphlet. The revelations contained in it startled the country, and have ever since formed the ground for contention in the Legislature. Although Max Havelaar may seem les attractive to many who read nothing but novels than the morbid and silly stories which are in demand at circulating libraries, yet by other and more judicious readers, it will be heartily welcomed.—"Daily News," Feb. 10, 1868.

A more stinging satire of the lower propensities of the Dutch could hardly be conceived than that embodied in the Amsterdam coffee broker, Batavus Drystubble, (who) stands out a one of the most remarkable embodiments of money grubbing Phariseeism which literature has yet produced.

Thackeray himself could not have surpassed this seething page ('God so directs all things that orthodoxy leads to wealth," etc.). It is immortal, come what may to the book that contains it.—"Contemporary Review,' April 1868.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compound, ed of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their sourse in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to rotain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem moss. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehotable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uninformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of.

Salt Rheum. Tetter. Scald Head.
Syphilis, or Venereal Disease.
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptious
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever, & Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the consitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will tho found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilly must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly haoted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or dinased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to mal functional operations.
