GERMAN PURE SISTE

IT UPROOTS THE FOUNDATIONS OF DISEASE.—The Constitution and the Blood. permanent cure of any ulcerous or erup'ive No permanent cure of any ulcerous or unprive disease can be effected except by constitutional reatment. The vitated blood must be rendered pursand healthy, otherwise the cause of the disorder lies lurking in the system, and is sure to break out in some deadlier form than before. But one dictine known among men reaches and expels this baneful principle, and restores the constitution to its original strength and vigor. It is Bristol's Sarsaparilla. Suppressive medicines are most dangerous in such case, and mercury almost invariably substitutes for one malady another equally terrible. But this Balsamic Vegetable Detergent and Rest rative razes the very foundations of disease, and converts into a strenghold of health and strength verts into a stronghold of hearth and strength the system from which it has expelled the poi-tonous invader. To its purifying and life-icnewing power this most wonderful of the world's remedies owes its unrivaled reputation. Bristol's Fills are prepared exactly to act in harmony with the Sarsajarilla, and when used at the same time will greatly facilitate the cure.

A remarkable feature of the matches was, that the Irish Team shot their scores right through with Rigby's muzzle-loading rifles, whereas the Americans selected Remingtons, which they had to clean after every shot. The Irish visitors express in enthusiastic terms their sense of the prisoners recently taken. General splendid hospitality offered to them in America, and their admiration of the institutions of the Great Republic. It is far more refreshing to read than anything about the sixty-second day of the Situation.

The following specimen of the kind of telegrams about the revolution which have been sent to London is amusing. We take it from a London paper of the 24th ult. It is not before he is wanted that Dr. Gepp has been called in to 'fix up' the telegraph business with Europe:

" Montevideo, Oct. 21. "It is reported that General Mitre has landed at Villalba, near Buenos Ayres. The Government troops are joining the insurgents in great numbers.

We are authorized to inform the members of the Scotch Church that on Friday evening next there will be a reparatory service for the communion at the church, on which occasion it is expected that either the Revd. Mr. Ferguson of Chascomus or the Revd. Mr. McNeill of Banda Oriental will preach. On Sunday the Communion service, which has been unavoidably postponed, will be celebrated: and on Monday, at noon, there will be service at at the Scotch church at Jeppener station. The Rev. James Smith celebrated service on Sunday last at Mr. David Methvin's beautiful quinta at Flores, when the congregation amounted to fully 70, the largest that ever attended there. This shows that Flores, as we recently remarked, is rapidly filling up for the season. In reference to Mr. Nolan, formerly of Caballito College, for whom we made enquiries last week, we have recelved a letter containing an address where he can be heard of.

There was a first-class scare at the Flores Railway station yesterday morning when the daily-bread men were waiting for the train. Not a single newspaper from town had reached Flores; neither Tribuna, Courrier, Republica, STANDARD, nor even Daws's diminutive organ the Centinela. Awful was the consternation; various were the conjectures, and many surmised that the telegram to London stating that the entire Press was suppressed had at last come tiue. When the train came up, however, a Moron man partially restored tranquillity of mind to his Flores friends by stating that he had seen one copy of the Republica at Moron. On arriving in town it was ascertained that the rain, the railway and the 'repartidores' were

The present factory includes 13,000 furnaces, 300 steam engines, 70 steam hammers, 16,000 gas lights, 52 kilometres of rail and tramways, and gives employment to 19,000 workmen. The workmens' cottages around it are built to accommodate 30,000 people. Even in England there is not such a gigantic establishment as this. The Church Herald, the leading Church organ in England, has the following paragraph :- " Cardinal Cullen, of Dublin, like a true shepherd of his flock and faithful servant of Christ, has issued a vigorous and forcible pastoral against some disgusting representations of religious rites on the stage in an opera, 'Il Talismano.' We rejoice to learn that Mr. Mapleson, the manager, has at once regard. ed and profited by his Eminence's well deserved condemnation by withdrawing and omitting altogether the odious scène. When will our weak and smooth-tongued bishops take a leaf out of the book of our Roman bre-

The Nacion (ministerial organ) says Councillor Octaviano arrived to-day in the Iberia from Europe. "We concur in this report.

Although everybody was dying (as the ladies say) for news yesterday morning, in consequence of an evening colleague hinting on Monday that the womb of Time was big with coming events, there was precious little to be had, though rumours were as thick as leaves in Vallambrosa or some peoples heads. Up to the evening no official news of importance had been pub-

While scanning the columns of a recent exchange yesterday we applied the scissors to the following paragraph respecting the increase of crime in Italy. The figures are certainly most startling. Fancy 70 per cent of the criminals escaping! - "The Assize Court of Ravenna is about to try the -22 assassins who between 1865 and 1871 have spread terror over the province of Romagna. In Italy the number of crimes, which amounted to 65,000 in 1863, exceeds 160,000 annually at the present time The escapes are from 60 to 80 per cent."

A box of old newspapers took fire in that well known hostelry, the Golden Anchor, on Sunday night. There was tremendous commotion amongst the guests and servants. The worthy host sent for the fire brigade, and up it came; but the engines, hose and everything else were out of order and could not be got to work. At last a gentleman who lives opposite rushed in and with a jug of water suppressed the burning newspapers instanter. A fire in a teapot.

We recommend our subscribers to lay in a good stock of umbrellas for the summer, which many weatherwise folk declare will be an unprecedent edly wet one. The rain on Monday night was, while it lasted, one of the heaviest showers of the season.

We intend to publish to-morrow or next day a capital letter which appears in the Times of 24th ult., from that distinguished philanthropist and philosepher, Mr Joseph Brickbat Jones. It is the richest thing we have read for a long time. Brickbat Jones!! 'What's in a name?'

So many people are asking the derivation of the name-Mondego, which is that of the new R. M. S. just arrived from Europe, that we take the follow ing from our gazetteer :-

A colleague tells of a very pretty girl living near the Once whose mamma had gone out for a little shopping, leaving the damsel alone; on her return she heard an animated conversation in the drawing room, and peeping in found a lover on his knees in true London Journal fashion. The' 'maternal' said nothing till she had secured the strongest broom handle in the house, and then she burst on the lovers like an avalanche, applying the broom handle to the Lothario in such terrific fashion that he rushed howling from the house. The girl fainted of course, but the scent of a pail of cold water in the old lady's hands brought her to in half a jiffey. What a splenlady would make.

,876 tons gross and 1,415 tons registered. She vas built in 1869, and is owned by the Liverpool, Brazil, and River Plato Steam Navigation company (Limited). She left Liverpool, 4th August list, bound to Lisbon and Brazil, with Crew of 42 hands all told, and under the command of Mr. Thomas Byrne, who holds a certificate of competency as Master, dated December, 1861. She carried a general cargo, including about 380 tons of iron, part of which she loaded n'I ondon and Antwerp, at which places she called. She left Havre about 2.10 p.m. on the 18th August, having then on board 27 passengers in addition to her crew. The ship was at that time in every respect well found and seaworthy the weather fine and clear, and the sea perfectly smooth. At 3.15 p.m. Cape Bartleur bore SW by S, distant, according to the log, four miles, but, according to the evidence of the Mate and state. ment of the Master, from five to sever mil's. The course up to this time had been NW by W. nothing westerly. At 8.30 p.m. the course was altered to W 3 N by compast. At 10 p.m. Capa Lovi was ab am, distant adout six or seven miles. At 10.30 p.m., up to which time they had been going about eight knots, a thick fog set in, when the engines were slowed to half speed, and the course allored to W and by N | N Cherbourg Lights were also sighted. The Master was on deck almost the whole of the time from leaving Havre, and a good look sat was kept. About midnight the coarse was a tered to W by N, and the engine, wer; set at fall spect. About 12.15 the loock-out reported something ahead, and voices were hear I shouting out in French, which proved to be from a boat, upon which the helm was put hard a-port, and the engines were stopped and reversel full speed, but aimost immediately the ship struck, and remained hard and fast at about high water. Assistance was got from Cherbourg on the following day, and eventually, after discharging part of the carg she was got off on the 26th, and taken into Cherbourg, where she was repaired, and subsequent ly returned to Liverpool, where she now lies in graving dock. No lives were lost. The Court was of opinion, from all the evidence brought before it in this case, that the Master of this vessel Sociedad Britanica de Paseos a Europa.

It is difficult to say whether Max Havelaar is more interesting as a novel or powerful as a political pamphlet. From either point of view it is of rare and first rate excellence, In its lifes like actuality it constantly recalls Defoe, whilin its tender and original humor it suggest. Sterne in his best moods.—"Westminister Review," April, 1868,

• • That is the whole story. A book which combines more humor, knowledge of character, high thought, deep pathos, and vigorous political intelligence than any we have read for a long time.—" Evening Star," Feb. 14, 1868.

Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their sourse in the blood and diseases that have their sourse in the blood and bumors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Saraparilla plente found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical man esteem mose. About fifty per cont. of Bristol's Sarsagarilla consists of the concentrated extract, the renainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is diagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sursaparilla.

SHEEP DRESSING

Is now used more extensively in Great Britain and the Cape than any other Dressing, and by the leading Flock masters in preference to all others.

It instantly destroys all insects, yet is perfectly safe to use.

It stimulates the growth of the fleece, making its use very profitable.

It is an effectual remedy for Scab.

It prevents the attacks of Flies on Sheep and Cattle.

It effectually cleanses the Fleece,
[being a Soft Soap with other ingrodients.]

It is free from the danger and injurious effects of Poisonous Dressings.

The attention of Sheepowhers in Australia,
New Zealand and other parts, is with confidenc, invited to this Dressing. In Great Britain ane at the Cape it is now generally adopted, and rapidly displaced the use of Tobacco, Arsonic, Mercury and Poisonous Mixtures. It possesses important advantages over such Dressings, being much more certain in its action, and not only
