PEACE CELEBRATION. CONCORDIA, Dec. 18th.—Four thousand troops reviewed yesterday by Colonel Mansilla. Salute of 21 guns at 10 o'clock.

We are, consequently, not the least surprised at seeing the mean excuses now offered to the ill-humor of the director of Continental politics.

The Neva is covered with drift-ice from the Lake of Ladoga. If the present weather continues the river will be completely frozen in a day or two.

Our loss is 44 killed and 150 wounded; that of the enemy 600 between killed and wounded, including Major Valdez of the San Juan rebel infantry.
