Mr Norman Tate, F.I.C., F.C.S., &c., reports --- "After careful analysis and practical trial of TITAN SOAP, I am pleased to say that it is thoroughly well made, possesses very remarkable cleansing and whitening powers, and is quite free from anything that can injure the skin or washable fabrics."

Mrs Whittaker says:

"I like the TITAN better than the 'Sunlight,' and will never be without it."

"TITAN SOAP is A 1 for Washing 191111111 Clothes. Send me up at once eight arrobas more."

was skated for at Lingay Fen on January 21st. The three Dutch skaters present refused to start on the plea that the ice was not sufficiently good but there seems to have been little cause for complaint on that score as a Dutch professional present had little difficulty in lowering the record for one mile with three turns. This was accomplished by Marten Ringman who com- pleted the distance in 3 min. 8 secs. Five Englishmen started for the Cup, Messrs J. C. Aveling, W. Allen, A. E. Tebbitt, F. Hiam, and A. F. Barton. Mr J. C. Aveling won the gold medal, completing the course (one mile with three turns) in 3 min 254-5 secs	match was arranged. The severe winter weather of the past month interfered somewhat with training opera- tions, and, not wishing to throw away the slightest chance, Bubear was for some time located at Portslade, doing his sculling on the Shorebam water. On Monday, January 30th they came to the mark fit and well, Bubear scaling 11st 121b, and his opponent 11st. The men were boated respectively by Messrs Thompson and Bowers and Ruddock. The morning, though dull and shomewhat overcast, was favourable, on the whole, to the day's sport, and if the wind proved a little troublesome in Chiswick Eyot, and the tide was a poor one, these drawbacks did not affect the attendance, which was certainly very good indeed—the best seen,	wool imported into England from ten different duringthe past four years :1839.1890.Australia123867912261721380963Cape of Good Hope287334283494316510Germany735845923335Spain and Portugal21558135388941India11351810342104310Persia22358223582232829457Russia1062636550696205River Plate1133563109145Peru and Chile324103005930328Mediteran and Africa827426479574237	sources 1892. 1487498

The following are the results of the round for the cup: Nottinghamshire Forest defeated Casuals by four goals to none, after a one-sided game on a bad ground; Notis County defeated Shankhouse also by four goals to none; Middlesborough beat Marlow by three goals to one; Everton beat West Bromich Albion by four goals to one; Sheffield United beat Blackpool by three goals to one; Burnley beat Small Heath by two goals to none; Bolton Wanderers drew with the Wolverhampton Wanderers; Darwen won an exciting match with Aston Villa by five goals to four; Grimsby Town beat Stockton by five goals to none; Accrington beat Stokes by two goals to one; Norwich Victoria beat Loughborough by two goals to one; Preston North End beat Burton Swifts by nine goals to two; Blackburn Rovers beat Newton Heath by four goals to none; Middlesborough beat Newcastle by three goals to two; Sunderland beat Royal Arsenal by six goals to none; and Sheffield Wanderers beat Derby County by three goals to two.

The Oxford University Rugby and Association teams each played an important match on January the 25th. The Association eleven played an interesting and exciting contest against Royal Arsenal whom they defeated by a gola to none after a hard sruggle. The same good fortune attended the Rugby team, who won against Rosslyn Park, by two goals to nothing, a record by no means indicative of the play, which was of a very even character.

Sir Conrad and Messrs Crawford's noted horse Crusader, which is engaged by the Kilmarnock farmers, are full brothers, and like him he is big and massive with the very best of bones. Sir Conrad is a clean, hardboned, active colt, with scarcely a speck of white on nim, and he has excellent feet of the best quality with standard pasterns. He has won numerous prizes, and has been veted and re-veted, and is found to be sound and correct in every particular. His owners are well pleased with their selection, as they very well may be.

CORRESPONDENCE

ONE-DAY CRICKET MATCHES

Buenos Aires, Feb. 24.

Dear Sir,-

In your last issue I notice a paragraph which says :

"We were wrong in stating last week that the Lomas A. C. beat the Buenos Aires and Rosario Railway A. C. at Belgrano on the 12th by eight wickets. The match was for one day only, and therefore decided on the first innings, Lomas scoring 80 against the Railway's 35, won by 45 runs."

Allow me to draw your attention to the fact that you were perfectly right in givin, the result of the match in question as an 8-wicket victory.

The rule says : " The match, unless played out, shall be decided on the 1st inns."

Whilst on the subject of the laws of cricket. what a pity it is that those who play, and those especially who play at the game, do not read the rules more !

Scarcely a match takes place but some point is discussed, if not debated, and then we hear quoted rules such as only an overheated imagination could conceive, and opinions aired which would be amusing were they less pitiful to listen to. As a rule the worst offenders are no better at the practice than they are at the theory of the game, and I would suggest to them that they should study the rules when they have plenty of spare time-say during a match when their opponents are fielding.-Yours BACK UP.

Doctors D. Bernier and F. Sivori have been lately making a study of the carbuncle, or grano malo disease, or as it is better known in England as anthrax. The veterinary doctors have visited four or five different estancias, and have reported on their investigations there. Mr Pennirgton dealt with the symptoms of, and of the earliest numbers of "Sport and Pastime." The most important, in fact the plain duty of every estanciero, is to burn the bodies of all animals even suspected to have died from grano malo or carbuncle.

Our readers will remember that we announced some time ago that for some months past a party of Australians, representing the New Australia Cooperative Association have been prospecting in this country for a tract of land on which to found a colony, to be called New Australia, on strictly cooperative principles. A block of land near the Rio Negro was offered to the Association, but the agents here found the climate there too cold and otherwise unsuitable for Australians, and they have accordingly set out to examine another tract of land offered to them in Paraguay, on which they will probably settle.

A few weeks ago we advocated growing furze or gorse as a food for cattle or horses as it could be grown on parts of the camp whic' otherwise would be idle and unprofitable. We now see that a pamphlet entitled truly, "Furze or Gorse as Food for Cows or Horses," by the Rev. W. R. Townsend, rector of Aghada, has been published by H. Landon, Bridge Street, Cork, 1862. Any dry ground, however poor, is suitable for a crop: and precautions to be taken with, this deadly disease, in one no ground, however rich, but pays its way when under gorse. The plant is not suited for wet ground, nor for peaty soils. Plough the ground as deep as you can: and it is better when one plough follows in the furrow of another. Grass land should be trenched with spade or shovel or subsoil ploughed. T e time for sowing in England is March, April, and May: and 35 lb. is required to sow an acre. It may be sowed with or without a corn crop. In eighteen months from the time of sowing it will be fit to mow : and afterwards yields a crop every year. The kind to sow is that known as French Furze. Well wetting the furze before cutting improves it: and it will keep good three days after being cut. The quantity for a full-sized horse in work is a bushel twice a day and two bushels at night. He will not then require corn or hav. The time of cutting is from October 1st to May 1st. Machines have been constructed to bruise the furze and make it more easy for the animal to masticate. Athough the soil must be carefully preparad

(The match referred to was not played out, and therefore was decided on the first innings, Lomas winning by runs and not by wickets.-Ed.)

Remarkable Feats of Horsemanship.

To the Editor River Plate Sport and Pastime.

Dear Sir,-

With the idea of encouraging others to contribute, send you the following :--

In the thirties (I forget the exact date), the Kilkenny Hunt challenged the Wexford Hunt to send down three men to ride across country with hounds against three of their men. After a run of twenty-five minutes they came to Sir John Blunden's park, fox and hounds passing under a gate which was locked The first gentleman up was an officer, then in Kilkenny garrison. Close by the gate the wall had been built up to a tree, which was forked rather wide, somewhat lower than the wall. The Kilkenny officer was calling for the key of the gate, when the late Mr Patrick Stafford of Kayle, Co. Wexford said: "I've got the key," and put his horse at the tree, landing safely inside the park, thereby gaining the day for his county.

When the land is approved and handed over to the representatives here, two hundred and fifty tried bushmen will at once start out, and upon their arrival will proceed to erect houses, clear the land, and otherwise prepare the place for settlement by their comrades. Meanwhile the agents of the Association now in Argentina will return to Australia to carry on the work of organisation, and will take over the second contingent. As soon as possible a third expedition will set out. It is stated that within the next two years between 400 and 5000 persons are expected to leave Australia for the new colony.

The past year in the home wool trade, says the "Scottish Farmer," will be remembered as one in which there was little movement, and during its currency prices of wool touched a lower average than they had done for at least eighty years before. Lincoln wools, with an average price of 15%d per lb for the last eighty years, fell in 1892 as low as 83, d per lb. Excepting perhaps, in the case of fine Cheviot hoggs, Scotch grown whitefaced wools have been equally dull. With the exception of blackfaced, all other wools have

The bulk of this latter kind was taken for export. It is in Buenos Aires so we may hope that it may be shortly satisfactory to note that the year closed with some extensive orders from America, and the prospects of the wool trade at the opening of 1893 were decidedly brighter than they had been for some time back, owing, among other things, to the anticipation of a free wool bill becoming law in America within a reasonable time.

There are several estancieros in this country can corroborate the above.

In July, 1889, Mr Tom Jeffries aged 16, born in Montevideo, being home from Harrow for vacation, jumped a small mare (in cold blood) over a thickset hedge, 6 feet 7 inches high, at New Bay, Co. Wexford, thereby beating the record.

The mare was by Phoenix out of a criolla mare, and bred at Las Rosas.

In 1798, when the troops under Colonel Watson (who was killed) were routed by the rebels under Father Murphy, at the Three Rooks, near Wexford. a Mr Walter Greene, an officer in a yeomanry regiment, was retreating, and found the road between two high cliffs barricaled, the only possible place of escape from his Whether this scheme will be a success or not, as we tions of all grades of wool from the Colonies, which pursuers being through the shafts of a cart, which said at the time, the Australians have the reputation of have gone on increasing for a number of years till. in formed the lowest part of the barricade, having been placed on its heels with the chain back band swinging.

Mr Green rode his horse safely through the shafts and escaped.

The leap was afterwards repeated with the same horse, after a dinner party at Sir Simon Colclough's, of Duffy Hall, near Enniscorthy, to decide a bet of £100, between Sir Simon and a gentleman who doubted the possibility of doing it.

I saw, with Mr Greene's nephew, a document signed

The question as to the legality or illegality of the Santa Fé tax on cereals is now before the Federal Courts proved one way on the other. Dr Lucio Vicente Lopez represents the Santa Fé colonists and they could not have found a better man. # THE JOCKEY CLUB

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

As a convenience to the public the Jockey Club has established on its premises in Rivadavia 830 an office where tickets may be bought for the Hipodromo Argentino. The office will be open the day before and on the day of the race during the following hours :

On the day before races orders will be received from ten to five, and from eight to eleven in the evening.

On the day of the races the office will be open from

No charge will be made on tickets bought in this way and no other commission will be charged than that on tickets sold on the course.

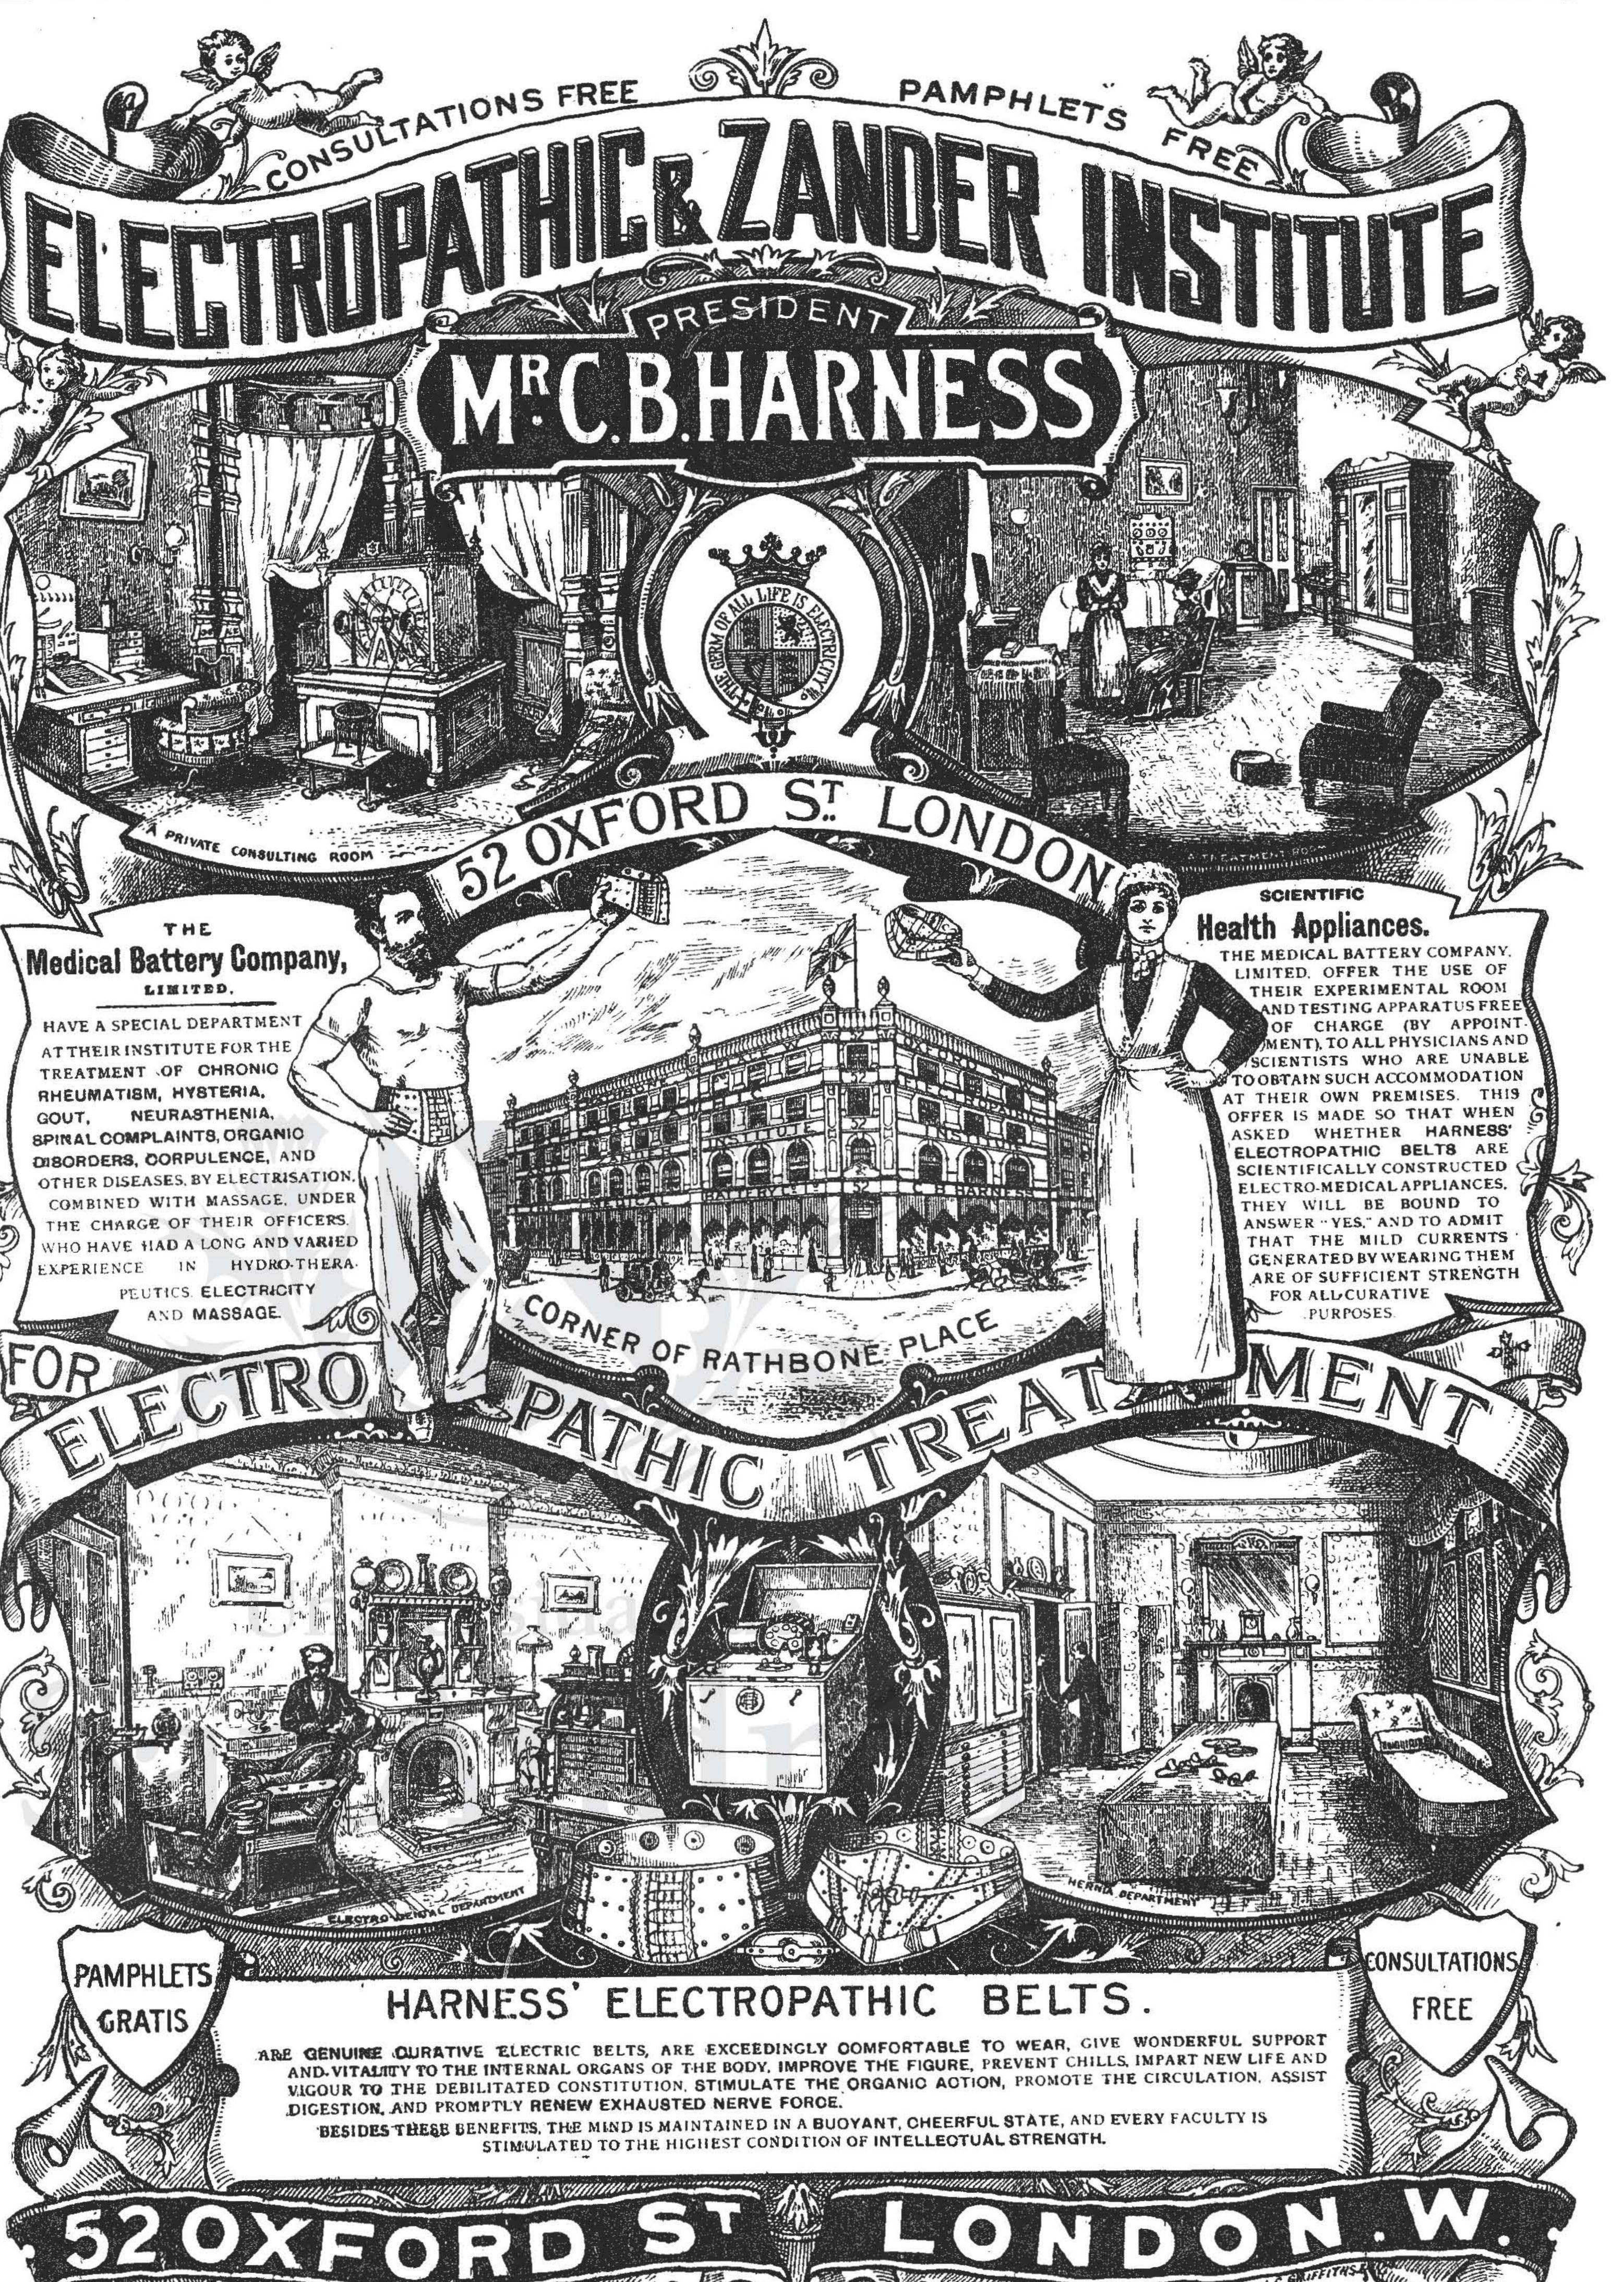

Members of the Jockey Club are hereby advised that the general meeting of the club will be held in the rooms of the club, Rivadavia 830, on Saturday the 4th of March at 8.30 p.m.

The business to transact is to reelect a committee and to hear the report and statement of the club's finances.

THE EXIGENCIES OF MODERN LIFE.

Ardour of business and study is apt to cause neglect of hygienic laws; energy becomes over-taxed, and the nervous system, always liable to disturbance, becomes deranged. There can be no doubt that the high-pressure exigen-cies of modern life are responsible for a considerable increase in the nervous types of disease; and among the still more numerous class who give themselves up to the pleasures of existence an exhausted state of the nervous system, a reduced condition of constitutional strength, and a marked loss of nerve force and brain power becomes established. Medicinal remedies are singularly futile in these diseases; but the rational method of Electropathic Treatment adopted by the Medical Battery Company, 52, Oxford Street, London, W., gradually restores the condition to a normally healthy state.

People frequently wonder how it is that by wearing Harness' Electropathic

Belt disease may be speedily and effectually alleviated. The fact is that the majority of suffering men and women have, from their very childhood, been so accustomed to fly to nauseous drugs and quack medicines in the hope of obtaining relief whenever they have felt unwell that they are inclined to doubt the efficacy of so convenient and simple an appliance as this genuine Electric Belt. Let such people once take the trouble to inquire into the matter for themselves. and either call or write, and have its action fully explained to them, and they will no longer be sceptical.

The Medical Battery Company Limited, are the sole proprietors and manufacturers of Harness' Electropathic Appliances, and all in search of health are cordially invited to call, if possible, at their Electropathic and Zander Institute, 52, Oxford Street. London, W., and personally inspect the originals or copies of the thousands of unsolicited testimonials they have received. We do not think that those who act on this advice will have any doubt afterwards regarding the positive heating influences of mild continuous currents of electricity, such as are imperceptibly generated by wearing one of Harness' Electropathic Belts. These curative appliances are light and comfortable in wear, and the practical as well as scientific evidence we have of their remarkable curative efficacy is absolutely indisputable. Thousands of testimonials have been received from all ranks of society, the originals of which may be seen at the Electropathic and Zander Institute. where the Medical Battery Company's experienced officers may be consulted daily, either personally or by letter. without charge, on all matters relating to health and the application of Electricity, Massage, &c., for the relief and cure of disease. A personal interview is, of course, preferable, as it not only, when possible, enables the inquirer to explain the symptoms of his or her particular case more clearly, but the many interesting features of the Company's extensive establishment can be personally inspected and explained; the Electropathic Belts and Appliances can be seen and scientifically tested; and the originals of numberless satisfactory reports can also be viewed, proving beyond dispute the remarkable benefits that have already been conferred upon suffering humanity by simply wearing these invaluable health appliances. A private consultation form will be sent to any address, with pamphlet and book of testimonials, free on application, and all who are unable to call should write at once before they forget it. Letters should be sent to Mr. C. B. Harness, the President of the Company. All communications are regarded as strictly private and confidential.

NOTES SPORTING

On Sunday next, the 5th, the cricket fixtures are as follows :

The Western Railway meet Lomas at Lomas, the Buenos Aires C. C. play Hurlingham Club at Palermo, and the Quilmes Club meet Flores A.C. at Quilmes.

will probably be :

Messrs B. J. Dillon, H. Anderson, C. Thompson, G. A. Thomson, W. Slater, F. Clunie, H. Cornwall, A. Anderson, L. J. Hutton, E. Robson. and Lacey.

The Quilmes Club's team against Flores will be elected from the following :

Pembroke Jones, F. Bennett, F. Rooke, A. Palmer, T. Palmer, P. Permaine, F. W. Atkinson, and H. C. Crusoe.

solutely nothing to the casual racegoer, and a great amount of interest is taken away from the racing, which at the best is never too exciting, through it not being known who are the real owners of ninety per cent of the horses running. Most of the horses belong to more than one owner, but the horses might run in the name of the principal owner. or the names of the owners might be published from time to time. The Jockey Club keeps a register of assumed names and of persons composing a "Stud," but these are never published as they should be.

* *

French Stud Book Commission The have issued a full list of the thoroughbred sires and The Hurlingham team against Buenos Aires mares imported into France during the past vear. Four of the former and seventy-four of the latter were introduced into the country, and with the exception of five marcs all of them were brought from England. Of the stallions Humewood is undoubtedly the best, his fine staying powers making him a valuable acquisition in one of the government studs for which he is destined. Dr White, Messrs T. Howson, F. Dore, F. Bocquet, ing in fact travelled home with Facundo the Ormonde two-year-old, and he has left a few yearlings behind him in one or two breeding esablishments here.

Too much can never be written about the Arab and his steed, and we never seem to hear of all the delightful legends relating to them. In General Daumas'" Horses of the Sahara" he maintains that the Arabs not merely prefer mares, but assert that they are longer lived. "The horse is fit for work twenty-five years, the mare twenty-five to thirty years." Of this period of endurance a proverb runs "seven years for my brother's use, seven years for my own, and seven years for my enemy." The mare is preferred for an expedition because she does not neigh, and "is more insensible to hunger, thirst, and heat." This superiority in mares is not recognised here, where only the very poorest of the poor ride them. But here the horses are gelded, whereas the arabs never are, and this makes a difference.

It is said to be a proof that an Arab horse is pure-bred when he will not eat barley out of a Humewood only left this country last year, hav- strange nosebag! and when he stirs up water with his foot before drinking. As soon as a foal is born all the men and women of the tribe set up a shouting, beating of brazen vessels, and a general all-round row; and a colt accustomed to such noises from its birth is never afterwards known to shy at anything. One of the first lessons taught is to stand stock still when the rider dismounts. He throws the bridle over the horse's head, and lays a stone upon the reins tickets for any races which may be going on at and the horse will remain without moving, Palermo. This arrangement will be carried on though ten or twenty be similarly tethered under the same management and carried out on around him. The Arabs will not have a horse that does not lie down, nor one that whisks his tail when running. An Arab story is that the lion and the horse disputed which had the better eyesight. The lion boasted that, on a dark night, he detected the presence of a white hair in a vessel of milk. The horse recognised a black hair in tar. The latter was held to indicate the superior vision. I have often remarked on the extraordinary ignorance of the gaucho regarding his horse. He cannot cure him of the slightest lameness or illness, he, as a rule, treats him shamefully, and in fact differs from the Arab in every respect, though like the Arab he is entirely dependent on his horses, which generally comprise his whole fortune.

Play will commence on the arrival of the 10 o'clock train from the Central to Quilmes.

The polo match announced to take place last Sunday at Belgrano did not come off. There was some misunderstanding about the arrangement of the fixture, in consepuence of which it fell through. In view of the Hurlingham tournament it is to be hoped that the Belgrano Polo Club will commence playing as soon as possible.

The Lawn Tennis Championship to be held by the Buenos Aires Lawn Tennis Club at the end of this month will by no means be only a local affair, as not only have entries been sent from Rosario and other distant towns, but even from Valparaiso, whose representative, Mr. Jackson, is, I believe, a very formidable opponent.

Club was held at Piedad 559 on Thursday last the stoppage of the traffic will soon be the cause for the purpose of electing a committee. The of a lame, or collar-galled horse never being following gentlemen were elected :

The Jockey Club have arranged to establish, in the lower part of their club buildings in Rivadavia 830, an office where the public can buy the same lines, and without extra commission, as on the course.

Every lover of horses will be glad to hear that the correspondence. which has been going on lately in the "Standard" on the cruelty to tram horses. has brought forth fruit. I hear that on Saturday two English gentlemen caused about fifty horses to be taken out of tramcars in which they were in an unfit condition to work. There is no better way to stop the cruelty than this, as the great inconvenience to everybody concerned A fairly well attended meeting of the Kennel and the loss to the tramway companies through allowed in a tramcar on the streets. ### RACING

BELGRANO-FEB. 26.

The first meeting of the season was held at Belgrano on Sunday last, when some races were held for the benefit of the Sociedad de Dolores de Belgrano. The meeting was rather of a scratch order, as two pony races were introduced into the programme, and though we are rather partial to pony racing in its proper place, we do not think this is on a programme such as that of Sunday. The weather was pleasant, not too hot, and a considerable number of ladies were present to help the cause of charity. Altogether the attend ance was not very large, but as the prizes were low, and the betting fairly animated, the Society benefited to the extent of some four thousand dollars by the meeting.

Proceedings commenced with the Premio Providencia, a race for criollo or half bred horses. Pelo Vivo won this event in a style which looked as if there was some foundation for the rumour that he was a thoroughbred horse well known on - our race courses by another name. At any rate. he must be an exceptionally good half bred to win as he did by 50 yards in 1 min. 4-5 secs. according to official time. Cautivo carried off the Premio Caridad very easily from Falucho and Carpintero, and he repeated the performance, though by no means so easily, in the Premio Asilo, when he just ma naged to get home in front of Peter. On both occasions Cautivo had none the worst of the handicaps. High Life secured the Premio Beneficencia'S. M. Gonzalez's Bourbon, 54 in 57 k....F. Gonzalez after a good race with Attichaut, who could not Mr J. J. Ravenscroft's Daiman, 54 in 57 k, I Cardoso stay home, and Monk most unexpectedly won a Stud Solitario's Porvenir, 54 in 57 k......P. Orti 3 possible invasion of this fever rather than of good race in the Premio Las Damas. The pony race lay between Bombon and Daiman, who started about equal favourites. The pair raced together to the paddock, when Daiman shut up, leaving Bombon to win easily. This closed a not very exciting day's sport, but one which of course augurs nothing one way or the other for the coming season. Most of the races filled well, but the fields were small throughout, as may be seen from the details below. Twenty were coloured on the card for the Premio Asilo, but only five turned out, $294 place. and what promised to be an interesting race was thereby spoilt. Details :--PREMIO PROVIDENCIA, for criollo or half bred horses, Criollos carried 60 kllos, half breds 65 kilos $400 to the 1st, 1000 metres.

joined by Peter, who took the lead just before coming was a fine run down by Jefferies, but England rode into the straight. Three hundred metres from home, the him out, and Dickson took the ball off goal, but it being lot closed up, and Cautivo went to the front with Peter, returned, he followed with another smart save. In the an exciting finish between the pair resulting in the serimmage Jefferies got the ball out and passed to Roformer gaining the verdict by half a length, two lengths binson, who hit over the line. England took the ball between second and third.

Peter 592-414, Politica. 410-310, Holland 884-917, Scipion and he, taking advantage of his opportunity, drove 222-147. Totals 3396 and 2275.

Dividend-Cautivo $4.80 win and $2.84 place; Peter being thoroughly handy at the time. $3.80 place.

PREMIO LAS DAMAS, a handicap for horses which have not won more than $4000, $500 to the 1st, 1100 metres.

> On opening the second quarter, Robinson came down with a rush and narrowly missed his goal, the ball hitting a pony's leg and glancing a foot outside the pole, but directly afterwards he returned on his ill luck, by a clever and successful shot. Leared then put in some good work, and Dickson had his hands full to save.

> When the ball was sent into play in the third quarter England at once got hold, and ran up to the Estancia goal, but Jefferies rode him out, and the ball was returned. only to be returned again. Forbes got hold, and coming through, was within an ace of scoring, but his pony swerving, he hit wide. Owen played well and, unselfishly, passing and returning in good form.

> The fourth quarter was just as fast as the others, one goal to tie, two goals to win was the Cañada cry. Forbes was the means of equalising matters when though much hampered, he scored a goal in good style. The result therefore was goal and goal. From the play vesterday afternoon, if the opinion of a novice may be taken, it may be safely assured that Cañada de Gomez can now put in the field a very useful team.

The following members competed : Baron Poellnitz, Messrs Cunningham, Dooner, Friese, Stanke, F. Costa and Edmunds.

Messrs Friese and Stanke tied, and the prize ultimately fell to Mr Friese, of Carmen de Areco, he having shot four birds in succession, Mr Stanke missing the last.

In a second match for a large Colt's revolver, Messrs. Edmunds and Cunningham tied, the latter winning and soul to the Governors of the Provinces, so that eventually.

Messrs Lett and T. Tolni acted as referees.

Mr Cunningham was very happy in selecting the most popular and "simpatica" young lady in Pergamino, Miss Rosita Traverso, to present the prizes, which she did in a most graceful manner, also giving the lucky winners beautiful bouquets from herself. The dinner took place at the Hotel Victoria, and left nothing to be desired. About 40 sat down, Mr Dooner, as President of the Club, occupying the chair.

On Saturday last an object lesson of a remarkable kind was given in Buenos Aires streets, viz.. three horses taken whilst actually working in tram cars. Their bodies were covered with sores, and they were in a disgraceful state. The tramway company "The Ciudad de Buenos Aires," to which they belonged certainly received a lesson on Saturday which it is to be hoped they will not forget.

The President appears to be handed over body any approach to improvement in Provincial Government need not now be expected.

During all that month the same difficulties of procuring food were experienced : and one night the two hunters sat sad and thoughtful con a trunk of a tree in T front of their huts.

Long time they talked of the necessity to find some other means of food supply. Suddenly there stood before them a warrior who seemed to spring, from the darkness, but was himself en wrapped in Hames of light. He told them that the Great Spirit had heard them talking in the darkness and had sent him to shew them the food which they wanted; but first he must fight with them to know which of them was the braver, the weaker of the two would then have to be sacrificed and buried and from his tomb would spring a plant , useful. to man which should give exquisite Fruit: Sufficient tomaintain in all seasons, these who should cultivate it. The struggle took place in front of the abodes of the Indians whose families had tasted nothing for three days. The weaker of the two hunters was Arati who was accordingly buried in front of his house. Immediately after the burial the warrior disappeared. As the burial took place hastily and at night the nose of the departed brave was left uncovered by the ceeding days. On this there are two small houses, small but comfortable, in one of which we were breakfasted with cordial hospitality. On passing down to this chacra I was much struck with the number of stacks of wheat still unthreshed. Surely a man with two or three machines ought soon to make his fortune in this country, a country essentially wheat growing, yet one in which machinery is only bought to a comparatively small extent.

Growers seem rather inclined to wait and hire, and are necessary and are present. The organization possibly lose a chance of sale when prices rule high, than buy what would return them a hundred fold, and what they could buy on most easy terms of payment.

After breakfast at the chacra of the three friends, we had a conversation both interesting and amusing.
